Mayor Mott Welcomes Templar Host to City of Oakland.

of self-sacrifice, courage and devotion to a common cause, left their impress for all time upon the world's history. You, Sir Knights, whose order has developed in time from the days of St. John of Malta, come here today as modern Crusaders—as twentieth century Knights—your standard, the emblem of righteousness is raised as were the banners of the olden Knights to noble purposes. May it ever be so. May it ever be that the Knights of the Temple shall stand as arms ready for the fray; Righteous and fearless, strong and steady in the great army of those who love the truth, who love the right, and who would preserve and guard to eternity those jewels of virtue and honor. So we welcome you to Oakland, and may it be permitted to say in no mean habitation have we invited you to make your stay. We have a clean, healthy community here. It is a delightful place of beautiful homes. It is blessed with a superb climate. It is favored by nature as few cities in our land are favored. We are striving to make it a better city. We are looking forward to the early fruition of our first efforts in development that go to make a modern American city ideal in all that pertains to its people's welfare, social and material. To this favored city of schools, of churches, of homes, of busy factories, of splendid urban and suburban transportation, activities of business and of healthy spirit, I give you again warmest of welcomes.

The grand oration by Eminent Sir Francis H. E. O'Donnell is given in full in another column of THE TRIBUNE.

Mayor Refuses to Ride in Pageant

A striking example of the spirit of Templarism was shown today in the great parade when Mayor Frank K. Mott, refusing the offer of an automobile in the line of march, insisted on marching in line with the Oakland Commandery, of which he is a member.

"Templarism and Masonry," said Mott, "does not know differences in men, those created by the order, during such a celebration as this. I want to march with the boys. Today I am a Mason, and not a city official."

'KNIGHT GIVES LIFE TO HUMANITY' COMMANDER DEFINES TEMPLARISM

THE grand oration delivered this morning by Eminent Sir Francis H. E. O'Donnell, Commander of Oakland Commandery No. 11, Knights Templar, was as follows:

"Magna Est Veritas et Prævalent."
"Great is Truth and it shall prevail."

The history of the Valiant and Magnanimous Order of Knights Templar is written fully up to the close of their labors in the crusades and to the cruel persecution and dispersal of the order in France, in 1313. The death agony of the grand master, Jacques Blumenthal de Molai, in the flames before the Cathedral of Notre Dame, in Paris, was not the closing episode in Templarism. Wisely, but secretly, the duty to perpetuate the order was passed on by the grand master to his deputy Sir Jean Marc Larnienus. Sanctified and glorified by the life blood of the valiant martyr, the Order of the Temple has been perpetuated from generation to generation. The conquest of the Holy Land, the crowd of pilgrims on their way to the shrine of the Savior and the care-taking of the sick and wounded no longer occupy the hosts of the order. The knights of Jesus Christ, the Templar Knight of the twentieth century must give his life to a greater effort. The duty devolves upon him to be the paramount exemplar of humanity, the rights of life and liberty in the pursuit of happiness.

RIGHTS OF MAN ARE GUARANTEED.

The tenets of the Valiant and Magnanimous Order of the Temple confirm the inalienable rights of man, guaranteed by the American constitution, to all who have the good fortune to live beneath the glorious and protecting folds of the star spangled banner. The red and white stripes and blue union of old glory emblematically represent crushed, suffering, bleeding humanity, bound into one great family by the holy bonds of affection, and uplifted to the azure empyrean, where shine the brilliant stars of eternal hope.

The Knight Templar, bound by the solemn vows of the order to feed the hungry, clothe the naked and shelter the homeless, has upon him a personal responsibility greater than that of the ordinary citizen. Templarism holds up to the gaze of man not a cross of fancy or fiction, but the real and the true, the cross of the ideal, the symbol of "the greatest thing in the world."

Life is synonymous with self-sacrifice. It matters not whether it be a Marcus Curtius who hurled himself into the abyss to save Rome; the Christ who voluntarily expiates the sins of the world upon the cross of Calvary; a Winkleried who gathers to his breast the Austrian spears to succor Switzerland; a Washington who crosses mid danger and darkness the frozen Delaware to found a nation of freemen, or a Father Damien who immolates himself upon the leper rock of Molokai. It is the same divine attribute of love manifested by that evolutionary individual atom of the great universal intelligence called "a man."

TRUTH AND LOYALTY ARE STILL NEEDED.

There is the same need now of truth and loyalty as in the days of Plato and St. Paul. War, pestilence, earthquake, fire, flood and cyclone have at one time or another devastated and desolated portions of this fair land.

The knightly chivalry and courage manifested in the days of the ancient crusades have not deserted the earth. On every occasion the Templar Knights have been found to front and defy the dangers. Not for money, not to be honored for it, but to obey the unerring dictates of duty.

The Valiant and Magnanimous Order of Knights Templar stands paramount today among all the institutions and societies created by man as the one most inspired in all its activities by the divinity of humanity.

There never was a time in the history of the world when there was more necessity for a true guardianship of the rights of man. The Barons have been still of the earth. Insidious strategy is being used all along the line to break down those bulwarks, the foundations of which were laid by the patriots of 1776.

FOR PRESERVATION OF AMERICAN LIBERTY.

Every American citizen is guaranteed the alienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and to the conservation of his individuality. The guaranteed liberty of the individual enables him to work out his own destiny to the best advantage. Equality of opportunity is the corner stone of the American republic. Education and morality are the sure preservers of freedom. Free schools are the free gift of a free people. Education promotes the separate and collective happiness, prosperity and fraternity of everybody.

Free Masonry and its summit, the Order of the Temple, stand for the unqualified preservation of American liberty.

Philosophers are usually intense antagonists to militarism. China, the giant of numerical humanity, has for centuries been the puniest dwarf when measured by her ability to cope with vigorous foreign military aggression. Confucius and others of his school degraded the soldier to the level of the slave and the criminal. How strange it is that Confucianism, the religion of love, has elevated the social status of the warrior and surrounded the profession of arms with the halo of national glory and honor!

LAW AND ORDER SYMBOLIZED BY SWORD.

The philosopher has overlooked while the Christian sage has realized the individual and collective fruits which are propagated and stimulated by the law and order symbolized by the sword.

Peter the Hermit recruited the first great army ever organized with a definite Christian purpose. The failure of the Crusaders to finally win their cause was but the proof of the Master's declaration that his "Kingdom was not of this world." Nevertheless the organization and efforts of the Templars have accomplished Christian works and have spiritually fulfilled to the uttermost teachings of Christ.

What the Templars failed to win with the sword the Hospitallers won with the scalpel. They healed the wounds of friend and foe with equal clemency. The Templars by their military discipline, their devotion to duty, their heroism and their chivalrous courtesy, demonstrated the value of militarism when propagated primarily for an ideal purpose.

The obedience of the Knights Templar to command exemplifies the great truth that law and order are the sole safeguards and securities of constitutional liberty.

ESTABLISHES CODE OF PERSONAL CONDUCT.

Templarism establishes a code of personal conduct and policy which separates the individual from the mass and stamps him as the man of good morals and gentlemanly manners, the genuine gentleman. He whose conduct is "sans peur et sans reproche," whose word is superior to another's bond.

Templarism stands for the perpetuation of that ancient chivalry which made the medieval centuries shine with a lustre immeasurably superior to their economic and industrial illumination.

The Valiant and Magnanimous Order of Knights Templar has emblazoned upon its banners the names of many brilliant stars in the firmament of chivalry. Gallant knights who have won the knightly valor and Christian clemency. St. Louis Frederick Barbarossa, Richard Coeur de Lion, and last and greatest of all, the Grand Master Jacques Blumenthal de Molai, each in his great and glorious part to win back to the Christian world the sepulchre of the Savior.

The evolution of the individual, the immortality of the soul and the supremacy of the good are among the ineffable teachings of Templarism.

CRUSADE FOR CROWN OF CHARACTER.

The crusade of the modern Templar is to win for himself the imperishable crown of character. He learns the lesson that his personal responsibility makes him always amenable to the natural law of compensation. The terrorists upon the threshold of his Golgotha are the lions which he has to face and overcome if he would live the life that shall win for him the crown of victory.

The supremacy of the good in the physical world is evidenced on every hand. The glory of the sun, the moonlight on sea and land, the scintillation of the star spanned sky, the majesty of the storm clouds, the gorgeous hues of the rainbow, the glacial grandeur of the snow-capped mountains, the soft variety of the flowering mead, the iridescent of the rippling rill, the foaming whiteness of the roaring cascade and cataract, the sweet perfume of the forest, and every other aspect of land, sea and sky manifest how Nature is perpetually glorified by the beautiful and the good. This is the teaching of the Christ and the lesson of the cross, the supreme wisdom of the Infinite. This is the lesson taught to all

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WITHIN THE WALLS OF THEIR ASYLUMS.

OPTIMISM REPLACES PESSIMISM.

The spirit of pessimism which has for more than a decade been easily apparent to the observer of conditions in American life has taken its departure and a splendid optimistic elevation, cheerful and full of faith, has taken hold of the nation.

There is light ahead; the dark clouds of doubt and despair have rent themselves asunder and the scintillating sheen of the glorious future shines through the rift. The night is gone and with the dawn we see these angel faces smile which he have loved long since, but lost awhile.

The boundless extent of the natural resources of our almost illimitable land had for the moment ebullient us with the exuberance of our national prosperity. We had almost forgotten why the fathers fought and died for the flag. The nightmare is gone and once again we bow before the shrine of duty.

LONG MARCH HAS BEEN MADE.

The Valiant and Magnanimous Order of Knights Templar has occupied a paramount position in the consummation of this great change. "The reign of the Blessed Emmanuel, the Prince of Peace, the Great Captain of our Salvation has not yet become universal and eternal," but we have made a long march forward toward "the mountain of the Lord's house."

Man is the paramount intelligence in the physical world. The perfect language of geometrical truth, the certainty of mathematical conclusions, the priceless historical lessons of the past, the magnificent creations of geography, the wondrous visions of science, the ethical edicts of philosophy and the lovely manifestations of art, each and all emphasize to man the obligation to perfect the imperishable crown of character.

The Templar is the just and upright man who with a firm faith in God and a determination to emulate the example of his immaculate Master, goes forth to battle for the right. The gallant knight shields the innocent, protects the poor, and finds his chiefest joy, his greatest good in the promotion of the brotherhood of man.

"WHAT IS TRUTH?" IS ABLY ANSWERED.

The query to the Master, "What is truth?" has been ably answered by a valiant and magnanimous knight of the temple, who says: "Truth is the eternal religion which the facts of nature sustain to each other and to the individual intelligence or soul of man."

The world at large is not agonizing to know the truth, either of this life or of that continuity of the tomb.

The esoteric or secret mission of Free Masonry is to solve the riddle of the Sphinx.

The morality of Free Masonry and Templarism is the key to the decipherment of the Delphian Oracle, "Man know thyself."

The sir knight who establishes himself upon the foundation of this morality allies himself with the evolutionary constructive principle of Nature and easily unravels the riddle of the resurrection.

The morality of Free Masonry is defined to be "the established harmony of the universe, which man, by individual intelligence sustains to the constructive principle of Nature."

UNSUNG HONOR AND UNWEARIED ZEAL.

This splendid definition is credited to the same sir knight who has so ably answered the question on truth. America is, and forever will be, a Christian nation. The Order of the Valiant and Magnanimous Knights of the Temple is intensely American. Courage, constancy, charity and courtesy are the true characteristics of every pilgrim warrior. Unsung honor, unwearied zeal in a brother's cause and universal benevolence are virtues demanded of every Knight Templar. The ideal of Christianity, the human manifestation of the divinity of perfect love, is our paramount Grand Master.

The Templar knight who has fought the good fight and kept the faith has no fear of the future. When that warrior bows to the fiat of eternal Nature and passes through the valley of shadow, he knows full well that he will see upon the highest peak of the celestial mountains, amid the pristine purity of the heavenly snows, the Ideal Son of the Eternal Love standing beside the glorious cross of his immortality, won by the sorrows and sufferings of his earthly life, and over and about him the sir knight will hear the angels sing:

Onward Christian Soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before,
Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe,
Forward into battle, for his banners go.

HUNDREDS TO DANCE AT KNIGHTS TEMPLAR DANCE

Affair Will Be One of Largest Held in Oakland

GAIETY will reign tonight in the headquarters of the Templars. The sir knights, with their ladies, will be guests at one of the largest balls the ballroom of Hotel Oakland has ever seen, when forty-five hundred guests will dance in honor of the conclave season. The great ballroom will be a gay scene, the striking dress uniforms of the knights and the beautiful gowns of the women to make a whirl of color under the myriad electric lights of the great hall.

The ball will follow a concert to be given by the band of Los Angeles Commandery No. 3, one of the two Masonic bands in the United States. The only other Templar band is Philadelphia. After the concert, which will be given in the hotel lobby at 8 o'clock, the ball will take place. The grand march will start promptly at 9 o'clock.

IMPRESSIVE SIGHT.

The grand march will be an impressive sight, the Templars to march in full regalia, including the sword. Grand Commander E. W. Mack and Mrs. Mack will lead the march, followed by the officers and ladies of the grand commandery and commanders and past commanders of the order. The uniforms of the Templars are impressive. The full dress consists of the plumed hat and frock coat—in the case of officers, trimmed with gold, and in the case of the knights, with silver. The knights wear baldric, but the officers do not. The officers' swords are shown by the shoulder-straps.

Besides the Templars and their ladies a number of invited guests, including the city commissioners, will be present at the great ball. Mayor Frank K. Mott himself a Templar, and Mrs. Mott will be present and will introduce the other city officials to the officials of the Templars.

ALL VISITORS EXPECTED.

Practically every member of the Templars visiting Oakland is expected at the ball affair, and many of the past commanders of the different commanderies will be seen among the visitors. The great Templars' band of 40 pieces, after rendering the concert in the hotel lobby, will lay aside instruments to attend the social event of the conclave.

The Templars' ball will be one of the most important social affairs of the season, and will be of state-wide interest, practically every city being represented in this great event. The Oakland Templars have been working day and night on arrangements for the ball, the knights of this city and their ladies having the affair in charge. Under the direction of Commander O'Donnell the committees have perfect details, from music to program. The programs are unique and are much in demand as souvenirs.

The reception committee includes: Sir Knight W. I. Macdonald, chairman; Sir Knight and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Sir Knight and Mrs. J. A. Britton, Sir Knight and Mrs. N. K. Accommodations in Oakland for All Visiting Knights

Announcement was made today at Templar headquarters that accommodations for all visiting knights and ladies can be obtained in Oakland, and the Templars' registration bureau at the Hotel Oakland is busy securing places for all members of the order who arrive. Any visiting Templar will be able to secure, through the bureau, accommodations in Oakland, and it will be necessary for none of the visitors to be inconvenienced by being forced to secure quarters away from the scene of the conclave.

The registration booth in the Hotel Oakland lobby has full lists of available accommodations and reports that there is room for all.

Crack Drill Teams to Give Exhibition

Tomorrow will see several interesting events from the military point of view in connection with the Templars' conclave. The sir knight will inspect drill at the University of California in the morning, and in the afternoon the four crack drill teams of the Templars will compete at Lakewood park.

California Commandery No. 1, Los Angeles No. 3, Golden Gate Commandery No. 18 and Mission Commandery No. 41 will have drill corps entered and beautiful bronze shields bearing in precious metals the insignia of the order, will be the prizes. A large crowd is expected to see the drills, which will begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

The four drill corps are considered the best in the Templar organization, and it is said that their work is remarkable in its precision, vieing with the crack drill organizations of the regular army. The drills will be in full dress uniform.

OAKLANDER MEETS OLD FRIEND HERE

Frank Bilger and Montreal Man Are Thrown Together at Conclave.

The conclave of the Knights Templar brought together two members of the Mystic Shrine from temples in cities far distant from each other. These were Frank Bilger, illustrious potentate of Aahnes Temple of Oakland, and Fred C. Jones of Luxor Temple, Montreal, Canada. The two men had met at the grand council of the Shrine held last year in Los Angeles, and Jones was one of the first of the visiting sir knights to seek the hospitality of Aahnes Temple in the new headquarters of the temple in the Hotel Oakland.

In honor of the Knights Templar the members of Aahnes Temple kept open house yesterday and today. The temple has opened headquarters in the southeast wing of the building Pleasant rooms, with tables, alcoves, billiard and card tables and other equipment have been provided, and here the sir knights were welcomed.

FRIEND MEETS FRIEND.

Bilger was acting as the presiding genius of this happy retreat when Jones wandered in. Jones came up with the Los Angeles and Pasadena delegations. "Do you remember me?" demanded Jones.

"I can't recall your name," responded Bilger. "But you and I were in one of the last automobiles in the bunch at the parade in Los Angeles. You come from Canada."

Jones was welcomed. Bilger is in line for the Imperial Council to be held at Dallas, Tex., in May. It is probable that as a result of the meeting the Montreal temple will be among the friends of Bilger at the coming council.

Oakland Clubdom Welcomes Templars

Oakland clubdom greeted the Templars with open arms. The doors of the organizations of Oakland have been thrown open to the visitors, and reception committees are constantly in attendance to welcome the visitors. The Niles club, the Claremont Country club and the Athenian Club have received many of the visitors already, and have issued a general invitation to the distinguished guests to call before leaving the city. Society is taking a keen interest in the big event and every possible attraction is being offered for the entertainment of the visitors.

The Commercial Club has also entertained a number of the knights, the club rooms in the Hotel Oakland being admirably situated for this purpose. The Shrine headquarters is a popular resort.

BIG INDUCEMENT TO MUSIC PUPILS

Albert David Cohn Offers Very Unique Proposition to Students in Music.

Information has come that Albert David Cohn, the famed Oakland pupil of Leschetizky, has opened a studio at 280 Forty-first street, this city, and is to give the knowledge he derived under this great master's training to the pupils he might secure by taking the first twenty-five pupils at the low price of $1.50 per lesson.

There is no mercenary motive attached to this offer to say the least, and is only a desire on the part of Mr. Cohn to acquaint the general public with the fact that he is ready to receive pupils and to demonstrate to them the superior advantages of the Leschetizky school, for Mr. Cohn is the only teacher in Oakland who has ever studied under this great master.

Mr. Cohn can be reached by phone at Piedmont 7607.

FIGHT THREATENED ON CONTAINER BILL

SACRAMENTO, April 17.—The senate committee on labor and capital having reported today the cement container bill with a recommendation that it "do pass," labor members of the upper house expect to precipitate another battle such as occurred in the assembly, where the bill was defeated on a close vote after several hours' debate.

To Absorb Freckles and Other Blemishes

Every spring I receive many letters from girls seeking some reliable recipe for removing freckles. Last year I advised many to try marigold wax. Such favorable results were reported that this year I have recommended nothing else for the purpose. The wax seems to possess unusual properties which completely absorb every freckle, with no harmful effect. The complexion improves wonderfully, becoming as soft as a rose petal, and glowing with health.

For an ounce of marigold wax at any drugstore, spread a thin layer of it over the entire face every night for awhile, washing this off in the morning. For rough, red skin, sallowness, blackheads, pimples, and all cutaneous blemishes, this treatment is superior to any that has ever come under my observation.

Springtime also brings wrinkles to many sensitive skins that are much exposed to winds and changing temperatures. Pour a half pint witch hazel into a basin, then a ounce of powdered exfoliant, which quickly dissolves. Bathe the face in this; the effect on a wrinkled skin is remarkable. BUTLER BILL AMENDMENT REDUCES 'DRY ZONE' LIMIT

One-Mile Territory Clause in Measure Favors New Hotel

(Special Correspondence to THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, April 17.—Amendments introduced by Senator A. E. Boynton and adopted by the Senate yesterday afternoon have completely changed the effect of Senate Bill No. 672, by Senator Butler, designed to locate a one and one-half mile "dry zone" around all universities in the State of California. The Boynton amendments reduce the proposed zone to one mile, exempt universities situated in municipalities of the first class and protects breweries and the establishments creating liquors to be shipped out of the zone.

The one and one-half mile "dry zone" at the University of Stanford, created under a special act, remains, while the bill as it will now come up for passage leaves the zone about the University of California at Berkeley unchanged. Exemption of cities of the first class was intended only to affect San Francisco, where St. Ignace University is located.

The purpose for which the bill was introduced will be served through the amendment, as the zone of one mile saloons which are within 500 feet of the entrance to Santa Clara University. The other universities affected are the University of Southern California at Los Angeles and the University of Redlands.

BREED IN FIGHT.
Senator A. H. Breed of Oakland took an active part in drafting and securing the adoption of the amendments. Senator Breed, in whose district the State University is located, argued the case for the amendment, claiming that institution and even other university in the state with the exception of Santa Clara and St. Ignace were practically in dry territory.

The adoption of these amendments clears away a threatening situation for the Hotel Claremont, at Oakland, a $1,500,000 investment, now under course of construction, which is located 175 feet within the mile dry zone about the State University at Berkeley. Had the Butler bill become a law in its original form it would have put the hotel further into dry territory and eliminated all possibility of the hotel securing a liquor privilege when opened.

FERGUSON BILL IN HOUSE.
Through the Ferguson Bill, No. 1650, before the Assembly, the legislature is asked to pass a relief measure for this hotel. This measure, as amended, is now on the floor of the lower house and may come up for action before the end of the week. It asks that the Doe Library on the grounds of the State University be taken as the central point on the site of the hotel, from which to figure the one-mile zone. On this basis the hotel would not be in the restricted territory.

A further amendment to the Butler bill provides that the grounds of all universities as they now exist shall be taken as the boundaries. This would preclude all possibility of universities acquiring additional land, and thereby automatically increasing their "dry zones."

CONFLICT IS AVOIDED.
This amendment, however, does not specify that the boundaries of the respective universities' grounds shall constitute the starting point of the zone. This will make it possible to adopt the Ferguson bill without conflict with the Butler bill enacted. Although the Ferguson bill is facing an unfavorable committee report, it is freely stated that it will get strong support when it comes up for action on the floor of the Assembly. Proponents of the measure assert sentiment has so turned within the last few days as to practically assure its passage in the Assembly.

KILL VACCINATION BILL.
The Assembly yesterday afternoon voted down the Gelder bill, No. 357, abolishing compulsory vaccination in the State of California, by a vote of 41 to 24. Assemblyman George Gelder of Berkeley, who introduced and battled for the passage of the measure for the California Anti-Compulsory Vaccination League, made a lengthy speech for the passage of the measure. There were no arguments advanced on the floor against the bill, the vote being the only negative expression.

Gelder referred to the states of Minnesota, Utah and others that had abolished compulsory vaccination. He also spoke of Switzerland and England as having discarded the practice. Frequent references were made to the fact that the state board of health enforces the state vaccination law. Gelder declared the records of the state board of health on vaccination were incomplete and inconsistent.

He called the present vaccination law an act that menaced the liberties of the people of California and practically places the bodies of every person in the state in the hands of the state board of health for use with them what it will. He said the law was costing city and district school boards large sums of money because of the arbitrary action in ordering children from schools where the state board of health believes there is sufficient need to do so for protection against the spread of smallpox.

BASED ON ATTENDANCE.
The appropriation of state school funds is based on the daily average attendance at schools and with hundreds of pupils away for a short period the average is materially lowered and as a consequence the appropriations are cut.

The Gelder bill proposed to protect any child enrolled or employed in any public or private school from indiscriminate vaccination. The measure intends to prevent vaccination being made a condition precedent to or a prerequisite to admittance or attendance at any public or private schools.

Gelder, who is an assemblyman from Berkeley, became interested in the abolition of the health law because of the situation in the city of Berkeley, where a number of citizens clashed with the local health officials because the schools are closed at different periods or unvaccinated children sent home indefinitely from school during a smallpox epidemic.

Gelder made an effort to have the bill reconsidered. He said, however, that the California Anti-Compulsory Vaccination League would not start petitions in circulation throughout the state to initiate a measure for a vote of the people of the state.

'BUG' IS ELIMINATED.
The bill that in its original form would have allowed horses and automobile racing in the public streets of any city, according to its own construction, and which sustained about six amendments and ten considerations, was passed by the Assembly yesterday in its new garb. The measure, which was introduced by Assemblyman Johnson of San Bernardino, was the most amended, most postponed, most considered bill before the lower House.

As the bill finally went through the Assembly it prohibits speeding on the public streets of cities or towns in its original form it carried one of the most vicious "bugs" in the entire legislative catalogue. Its terms would have practically rehabilitated horse racing in California. It provided local authorities could grant permission for all sorts of automobile and horse races.

HIT AT JAPANESE.
Another measure that is designed to curb the commercial activities of the Japanese in California was passed in the Assembly yesterday afternoon, after a lengthy debate. The bill places the license of $100 a year on alien fishermen who are ineligible to citizenship.

But in hitting the Japanese the bill also strikes closer to home as it is identified by the debate on the measure, the prohibition of water-front localities protesting vigorously against the further provisions of the bill which place a license of $20 a year on aliens eligible and who have declared their intention to become a citizen and $10 a year for citizens engaged in market fishing.

Assemblyman Gelder led the debate on the bill in an effort to have an amendment adopted reducing the annual license for citizen fishermen to $2.50 and for aliens eligible to citizenship $10. This the Assembly refused to adopt.

Gelder, in his speech, declared the members had done enough legislating for the benefit of the state fish and game commission and that it is now time something was done to help the poor fishermen.

AMEND GAMBLING BILL.
Because the Assembly thought that by passing the Guill bill prohibiting gambling for money "anything representative of value" they were depriving the people of the socialable card game and the women of their whist prizes, the members proceeded to amend the bill to spare the domestic card game and in doing so practically cut everything tangible out of the bill except the enacting clause.

Yesterday the bill came up for final action, but Assemblyman Guill, author of several amendments for the purpose of "getting the bill back in shape again," he said.

The bill is aimed principally at bank or percentage games and the "representative of value" phrase was inserted to cover poker and other kind of chips. It was not intended to deprive the clubwoman of her hand-painted vase or cut glass dish won at a whist party, but the Assembly decided there could not be discrimination.

The amendments offered yesterday tend to get the measure back into tangible form without using the same "dressing" and are made particularly to cover bank and percentage gambling.

ALLOWS BOND ELECTION.
The Senate yesterday adopted and sent to the Assembly for action Senator Tyrell's constitutional amendment No. 34, introduced on behalf of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, proposing to the voters of the state that the county of Alameda be permitted to incur a bonded indebtedness of $1,000,000 with which to purchase stock in the Panama-Pacific Exposition Company as an aid to the 1915 Fair.

The measure carried with it an amendment, introduced by Senator Tyrell by Senator Thompson last Thursday afternoon, which provided that the county of Alameda may, upon the election of two-thirds of the qualified electors thereof, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, incur a bonded indebtedness of not to exceed $1,000,000 and the legislative authority of said county of Alameda shall turn over and grant and grant to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company the proceeds of said bonds for stock.

Originally the amendment did not contain the provision that the bonds be issued by a two-thirds vote of the people. It simply provided that the legislative authority of the county, which would be the board of supervisors, would issue the bonds.

This error was discovered by Senator Strother of Hayward and it was through him the matter was taken up with officials of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the amendment to the measure introduced.

URGE SUPPORT FOR PENSION.
Petitions signed by teachers in every school in the city of Alameda and one from the Oxford School, Berkeley, were received at the Capitol yesterday by Senator George J. Hays of Fruitvale, urging his support for the "Alameda teachers' pension bill," introduced by Senator Boynton, popularly known as the San Francisco teachers' pension plan, or any measure for the pensioning of public school teachers that the Senate and Assembly committees jointly might recommend.

The original measure provided for pensioners after having served thirty years in the schools of California. This measure, however, together with a bill introduced by Senator Tyrell, have been incorporated into one and in the amending process the rate has been cut to $500.

Senator Tyrell's measure was introduced for school authorities in Oakland and calling for a graduated rate of pension for 30 years service up to thirty years. The Senate education committee, however, favored the flat rate basis. As between the thirty-year service and the age limit of sixty years as a basis for pensions, the author has not yet decided.

Assemblyman Frank M. Smith, who introduced a companion measure to Tyrell's, and Assemblyman Ryan of San Francisco, who introduced a similar to Boynton's, will also agree on the plan to be adopted by the Senators when fully completed.

FAVORS DIRECT VOTE.
The Senate of California went on record yesterday afternoon as favoring the election of President and Vice-President of the United States by direct vote of the people, when it adopted Assemblyman George Gelder's Assembly joint resolution No. 1, memorializing Congress to place a constitutional amendment before the people for a vote.

The resolution recites that the electoral college is not representative, and at best is a mere formality.

The latter situation he occupied for a number of years.

ORDERS REMOVAL OF SPIKE FENCE

Judge Harris Decides That the High Iron Structure Is Nuisance.

That a corrugated iron spike fence, 25 feet high and 40 feet long is an obstruction to the public use of a neighborhood was the decision of Superior Judge Harris yesterday afternoon. He ordered the destruction of such a fence and granted Joseph Finkelstein costs of suit against Jacob Sugar for maintaining a nuisance.

Finkelstein, who lives at 2511 Filbert street, complained that after his neighbor put up the fence he was not satisfied, but continued to urge early in the morning with the consent of various kinds beat the iron until the entire community was awakened. Also, Sugar was accused of applying whitewash to the obstruction greatly to the detriment of Finkelstein's business property caused by a careless handling of the whitewash brush.

JONAS FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

The Jury Deliberates Only Four Minutes Before Bringing in Verdict.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Joseph Jonas, a middle-aged second hand furniture merchant, charged by the police with slaying his aged mother, Mrs. Lena Jonas, in her home on Precita avenue, on November 26, was found not guilty by a jury in Superior Judge Lawlor's court today after they had deliberated only four minutes.

Jonas was found strangled on the floor of her home, her hands and feet having been bound with ropes. The cover was made in her room and confusion as to the time the body was found and the delay in notifying the police led to a strong suspicion being cast against Jonas.

He was immediately arrested by detectives and was not given an opportunity to appear before the grand jury which indicted him. The testimony at the trial was largely confined to the police report and the evidence of handwriting expert Klitzka.

Superior Judge Lawlor took one hour this morning in instructing the jury. The twelve men retired to deliberate, but had barely elected a foreman when they returned and pronounced an unanimous verdict of acquittal.

Mrs. Jonas left an estate valued at between $50,000 and $75,000.

CHINAMAN CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Wong Yen's aversion to another year of labor at catching and canning fish for the Alaska Packing Company has landed him in the county jail on a charge of embezzlement by obtaining money under false pretenses, the complaining witness being Wong Yen's brother, who alleges that his father advanced Wong Yen $121 to tide him over the winter when he was unemployed.

Wong Yen, who is now in the county jail, was taken to the police station yesterday, after he had armed himself with a warrant. The arrest was made at the foot of Broadway.

"Him take money. Live him all winter. Promise spring come him go north with his money. Now he is in the county jail," explained the prosecuting witness, Yen, Detective J. K. O'Connell of San Francisco came along.

The arresting officers were Inspector Drew Sargent and Officers Fitzgerald and Rumsch.

EDITORIAL

The convention of the State Medical Society of California and the conclave of Knights Templar proves in a most practical manner the value of the new hotel to this city.

The men in attendance at these conventions are representatives of the best type of progressive California business men.

The value to Oakland of their stay at the present time is beyond estimate.

We know their stay will be an enjoyable one for all of Oakland will act as host, and we trust they'll all come again and often.

Therefore such gatherings were difficult to accommodate, but a new Oakland is growing up and guests of today are no longer before Oakland will be the convention city of the Pacific coast.

We welcome our guests of today as pioneers of a conventional movement Oakland-ward.

A TIP THAT COMES IN THE NICK-O-TIME

Why don't you get a matting or a cane suit case?

For summer travel there's nothing which quite equals them from an economical standpoint.

You know you can get a matting case, leather bound, for $1.95. Others sell up to $4.00.

And you can get the cane suit cases from $4.00 up to $8.50.

They're nice and light, quite durable, neat as wax and can be so easily handled that for many occasions they're preferred to the heavier leather cases.

The fact that they're lined assures dust from reaching the contents and the fact that they're so in-

PICKPOCKETS PLY TRADE ACTIVELY

Light Fingers Men Make J. F. Wilson of Sacramento First Victim.

A horde of human parasites, known to police circles as "pickpockets," arrived here simultaneously with the Knights Templar and the first victim fell into the hands of the light-fingers.

Wilson, a Knight Templar from Sacramento, who reported to the police last night that his purse containing $175 had been taken from him while boarding a Western Pacific train at 2:30 last evening at Third and Washington streets.

Wilson remembered that he had been jostled by several men on the steps of the train, and later pointed out to the police Joe Silvia, as one of the fellows who had jostled him.

OLD OFFENDER.

Silvia was immediately arrested, and proved to be an old acquaintance of the police. He was booked on a grand larceny charge. About a year ago under the name of Flores he was arrested here on an embezzlement charge preferred by the Jackson Furniture Company, from whom he had purchased a folding bed, paying $5 thereon. Later he sold the whole outfit and fled from Oakland. He returned to the city later and was placed under arrest just as he was about to board a train with two heavy suitcases. The suitcases were laden with home and home, which were alleged to have been stolen by him from the University of Nevada. The Nevada authorities preferred a grand larceny charge against Flores, and the mild-mannered charge against him here was held up in order to send him for trial on the felony charge.

However, beat the case and was again set at liberty. The police say they will hold him for the embezzlement charge now, which still stands against him.

Wilson, positive that Silvia, alias Flores, was one of the men he suspects of having secured his purse.

Resides Silvia the police gathered in four others who are suspected of being pickpockets, and who will probably be held in the city lanes at least until the Knights Templars' convolve has ended.

Others, say the police, will be gathered in as fast as they can be found. Captain Agnew of the detective force having declared that the town must be rid of these parasites so that Oakland's guests may not be molested during the week.

OTHER THEFTS.

Dr. A. R. Tambling of 429 Thirty-seventh street reported to the police this morning that his home was entered last night by a burglar through a rear door and a quantity of jewelry taken. The stolen articles were a gold locket, a ladies' bracelet, a child's bracelet, cuff buttons and a baby's locket.

Mrs. J. Malt, residing at 2622 Watt street, reported to the police that a purse containing $45 was stolen from her last night at about 1 o'clock in the vicinity of Broadway and Eleventh street.

The Southern Pacific company complains that a quantity of copper wire was taken from the vicinity of the Dalton foundry on the night of April 15.

THERE'S MORE IN MODERN BUSINESS METHODS THAN THE DOLLARS YOU GET OUT OF IT.

There's a Dividend That Comes in the Form of Friendships Which Makes the Work Worth While.

A large part of the satisfaction derived from a business comes from a sentimental source.

Nowadays the balance sheet isn't the only medium to bring joy or gloom to the merchant.

Some of the most satisfactory transactions conducted over our counters are 90% smile and 10% money. We'd rather sell a 10-cent package of Boric Acid and make a friend than to sell a $20 order and make an enemy.

And the way to make friends is to make people happy, and one way to make them happy is to develop in them the kodak habit.

"Take more pictures and you'll take less medicine" was the pointed advice of a prominent physician to a friend of the writer's recently.

Bowman's are anxious to interest every one in kodaking, because just as sure as a person gets started systematically on this delightful hobby just so sure will they be likely to become interested, ultimately, in the Bowman stores, where skillful efficiency in the developing and printing of kodak films is but one of several equally interesting accomplishments of the company.

This is the reason why we are so pleased to loan kodak for "week ends" or "over a holiday" or "during a vacation." We find that nearly every one who really gets a good start in systematic kodaking finally becomes a staunch friend of Bowman's.

Therefore remember that any time you'd like to expand your social life, you can get a kodak for a few cents a day—25 cents over a week end, for instance. We simply want to get you started, that's all!

HE LIKED THE TOOTH BRUSH

"That tooth brush you sold me is the best brush I've ever used," said a gentleman in our store the other day. "It seems to have the faculty of getting into all the out of the way corners and yet it hasn't injured my gums a particle. Most brushes either slide over the depressions or dig into the gums until they bleed."

It was the owner of one of our 35-cent Lister tooth brushes, and every word he said was true.

These brushes are made especially for our trade and are patterned after our own specifications in order to assure them of being dentally correct.

The brush consists of four rows of bristles (instead of three, as usual), and is shaped to fit the mouth with a tuft at the end to reach into the depressions.

They're ventilated by a series of little air holes and if hung up properly last several months longer than ordinary brushes and always keep clean and sweet and antiseptic.

In making them no expense is spared to get the very best materials.

Many of our patrons continue to order them even after leaving the city for a number of miles. We sell them for 35 cents each.

Oakland Entertaining Knightly Visitors.

The streets of Oakland have been crowded today with a mighty host of strangers who have flocked here from all parts of the bay region to witness the grand street parade of the visiting Knights Templar which occurred this afternoon. These plumed Knights represent the fifty-one Templar Commanderies in the State which have assembled here to attend the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of California. Among the distinguished visitors are many who hail from other States and are merely temporary sojourners in this section of the country. Many of the visiting Knights are accompanied by their wives and daughters, sisters and sweethearts, and to all of them, the ladies entertainment and reception committees are making their stay here one round of pleasant entertainment and delightful sight-seeing.

Among fraternal gatherings and public displays in Oakland the present conclave of the Knights Templar surpasses everything of the kind held. Nothing has ever been witnessed on the streets of the city which equaled the splendid display of the pageant of the uniformed fraters today and for the remainder of the week, the night illuminations. Templar banquets, uniformed ball, theater parties, bay excursions, sight-seeing, trolley and automobile trips through the east bay shore district will establish a new record in the history of fraternalism in Oakland.

The local Templar Commandery has borne the entire expense of the conclave, save that of furnishing the electric lamps and current which are a gift from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. It is, we believe, the first time in the history of Oakland when its merchants have not been solicited to contribute liberal sums of money to defray the cost of a public or semi-public event. Hitherto, the announcement of a public celebration involving large expense has invariably sent a shiver down the spinal column of every business man, because he has realized that he would be called upon by a finance committee to contribute the usual tax toward defraying the expense. Every business man in the city along the route of the parade and outside of the central business quarter, has shown his appreciation of being exempted from the customary tax by voluntarily decorating and illuminating his place of business to accord with the general harmony of the street decorations and illuminations provided for by Oakland Commandery.

Oakland has officially welcomed the visitors through its Mayor. Its citizens in general greet them with a hearty welcome. The hospitality of every home is practically at their service if desired. And, as a result, no doubt the Knights and their ladies will carry with them the pleasantest memories of Oakland, its beautiful environs and its hospitable citizens when they return to their homes.

The order of Knights Templar is one of the great organizations of the country which is exerting a quiet but powerful moral influence for the general welfare of the people, the purification and elevation of society and the advancement of its best interests. Over seven thousand of its membership are residents of this State and represent its best class of citizenship.

A Radical Defect in the Charter.

A grave defect in our city charter is made glaringly manifest by the returns from Tuesday's primary election. Candidates for five of the six offices to be filled received a clear majority of all the votes cast. In San Francisco or Berkeley they would be declared elected, but they will be required to make another campaign because the charter makers neglected to provide that a clear majority of all the votes cast at a primary is sufficient to elect.

Gross for Auditor, Baccus and Anderson for commissioner and Miss Brown and Mr. Cook for School Director each polled a large majority of all the votes cast; nevertheless they will be compelled to run the gamut of another campaign before they can be declared elected.

There is no reason in this. It puts candidates to an unnecessary expense and subjects them to a harassing annoyance for no practical reason whatever.

The charter should be amended. A majority of all the votes cast should elect at the primary election. There is no sense in compelling candidates receiving so emphatic an endorsement to run again. A second election should be held only when no candidate receives a majority over all.

Wilson—That's All.

During the short time Woodrow Wilson has held the Presidential office he has demonstrated two or three traits which go far to explain what manner of man he is. He is sure of himself and resolute in his determinations. He is neither a temporizer nor a procrastinator, and he does not shrink from responsibility. He is his own man in the fullest sense. There is no man behind the throne, no unseen power that influences his decisions and governs his course. He may be deceived, but not led.

These are all marks of a strong man. Events will determine whether his wisdom and breadth of vision are equal to the strength of his mind. For good or ill, the country has a President who is resolved to be the head of the government, who is self-reliant to a fault and firm to the verge of obstinacy. His firmness is the adamant of a cold, passionless temperament. It has a tremendous momentum because it moves steadily, calmly, equably in a straight line, refusing to be diverted or stayed for friends or foes, or for any reason which does not appeal to his convictions. He is a human glacier in motion, marking out his own course and a law unto himself.

The leaders of his party have already found that they have a master to deal with—a master who knows his power and who is determined to share it with no one. He will control his party, not allow it to control him. His party will have to accept his interpretation of the party platform, and his idea of tariff reform. Before an egotism so cool and collected, so profound and unemotional the ordinary mechanics of politics fall to pieces. Here is a man who knows what he wants to do, and who will find a way to do it if he can, and will not be deterred from doing it by threats or predictions of party disaster. For the time being he is the party, and his designs are the party's aims.

Woodrow Wilson is far less of a party man than Grover Cleveland and less approachable on the human side than Andrew Jackson. If he has any blind side nobody has found it out as yet. He listens courteously to what the leaders of his party have to say, and then announces his intentions as if they had not spoken. It is always his plan that he promulgates, and it is noticeable that he never speaks as if there was a doubt of their going through. And they will go through, for better or worse, just as the Louisiana Senators have been compelled to yield to his dictum in the sugar matter. Teacher will do "he thinking for the class.

Such a man is not likely to win a great amount of love, but he is apt to draw around him steadfast adherents. He will win respect and compel obedience if he cannot gain popular affection. If his judgment be as sound as his intellect is clear he will make a successful President and impress himself upon the popular imagination. Democracies love strong men, and instinctively give the resolute domineering type their confidence. Cicero and Demosthenes did not rule and lead in the masterful sense, but Philip and Caesar did, and they changed the course of history and altered political maps to suit themselves.

This Princeton professor belongs to the same class though of a different type, and he may be of great service or of great injury to his country. He will be one or the other. Congress has been in session less than two weeks, but it has already shown that it will obey orders from the White House. Champ Clark may grumble and Bryan expand his chest, but both will do just what Woodrow Wilson says, and he will not care a snap whether they do it willingly or unwillingly so long as he carries his point. This Virginian with the New England temperament is all of a President, and he is bossing his job in the serene belief that he is qualified in all respects to fill it and without qualms that he is always in the right. He is a man. In the language of the whisky advertisement this Democratic administration is Wilson—that's all.

The Legislature has tackled everything else, why not the rainfall? A law to make it a misdemeanor for a farmer to have less rain on his land than will make a crop, would be in line with other regulative legislation.

JOKES OF THE NATIONS

A man who had nothing else to do has taken unto himself the task of gathering from the comic papers of six nations the leading topics which appear to be the favorite themes of humor in each country. Here is a brief summary of the result:

The German ticklers are: A professor who forgot his umbrella; a college student who drinks beer and "touches" his friends for a loan; the misses who worship army officers; a husband without the front door key; the cook's lover, usually a soldier hidden in the kitchen; mother-in-law.

Englishmen prefer: Kisses (in all descriptions); boys who are afraid of being sued for breach of promise; an unlucky bottom; an unskilled golf player; ditto football; ditto cricket; ditto rugby; Americans who talk through the nose; mother-in-law.

French people giggle at jokes on soldiers and nurses; wives who—husbands who—; boys who—; girls who—; the German tourist in Paris; government made matches; the mode before the last; the last mode; the latest mode; the very latest mode; Sarah Bernhardt's age, mother-in-law.

The American's favorite topics are: The common people quashed by a trust; a stolid Englishman; an Italian who eats spaghetti; a silk hat (occasionally a nose) smashed in a fist; a bottle of whisky labeled lemonade; an Italian hurdy-gurdy; mother-in-law.

The Italian's favorites are: A glutton; country priest; Roman urchins; Neapolitan cabbie; a tailor's bill; a cigar that does not draw; the colonel's orderly; ladies' hats; mother-in-law.

Finally, the Spaniards' predilected jokes are always on corridas, toros y espadass; when they change they are on toros, corridas y espadass, or espadass, corridas y toros; once in a while mother-in-law gets a shot, too.—Stray Stories.

A novel use for part of the salmon river tax has been evolved by the legislature of Minnesota. This unique plan is what will be known as a "jag farm," to which any person who has been "jagged" three times within three years is liable. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been invested in the undertaking by the State. The farm comprises 497 acres of land under cultivation, and this will give employment to the inmates.

DICKENS AS SPORTSMAN

Walter Crotch, whose book on Dickens as a social reformer was recently published, points out the fact that in spite of all that has been written on the novelist and his work, nobody has so far thought it worth his while to touch upon one aspect of his novels, viewed from which he becomes one of the most vivid exponents of sport in our literature. He had an intense sympathy with sportsmen; his love of open air and rapid motion, as exemplified in coaching, are characteristic features of his work, and one has only to read the "Pickwick Papers" to realize the strength of his sporting instincts.

The original conception of "Pickwick" was that it was to be a collection of humorous sketches depicting the adventures and misadventures of a sporting club. As the author said in his original preface: "There was a notion . . . that a 'Nimrod Club,' the members of which were to go out shooting, fishing and so forth, and getting themselves into difficulties through their want of dexterity, would be the best means of introducing the plates of Seymour round which it was originally proposed that the text should be written.

"Pickwick," of course, contains the richest ore of sportsmanship in the English mine. Here we have the president of the Pickwick Club on the ice, Winkle's shooting prowess when he aims at the pigeon and kills the cow, shoots at the crow and wounds the pigeon; the immortal match between the Dingley Dell Cricket Club and the All Muggleton Eleven, Mr. Winkle's unskilful equitation and the shooting picnic at Burry St. Edmunds. And there is Lord Mutanbuck, the typical "nut" of the period, with his imitation mallet, "the neatest, prettiest, gracefulest thing that ever was upon wheels. Painted red with a cream pleated."

The theme is by no means exhausted in the transactions of the Pickwick Club. In "Dombey and Son" we have a vivid portrait of the old style of "bruiser" in the person of the "Game Chicken," who instructed the unskilful Mr. Toots in the morous sketches depicting the adventures and misadventures of a sporting club. In "Edwin Drood," who "could do a bit with his hands quietly," and was in the habit of boxing at a looking-glass "with great science and prowess," after breaking the ice near Cloisterham Weir in the course of his morning swim. Dickens himself was no mere describer of sporting prowess. He was a good horseman, and his walking feats are in their way legendary. He once walked to St. Albans before breakfast, and on his second morning tour in the United States he found time to umpire a walking match, after having previously gone over part of the course as a good swinging pace.—Windsor Magazine.

HAPPY, HAPPY, USE TIZ

A Marvel for Sore Feet; Acts Right Off.

Send at Once for Free Trial Package.

Sore Feet? Never After Using TIZ. Good-bye fever, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelly feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, calluses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before said.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on soreness of the feet, and it is the only remedy that does. Mrs. F. J. Androska, Jamaica, N. Y., found this out. She says: "I tried so many different remedies but none seem to draw out the inflammation and relieve the feet. TIZ has done for me. TIZ cleans out every pore and kills the feet—your feet."

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and calluses. You'll feel like a new person.

Remember thousands of other people have experimented with substitutes for TIZ without getting relief until they used the genuine. So when anyone asks you to experiment tell him you won't be the least bit disappointed. TIZ is for sale at all drug stores, department and general stores at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct. Money back if TIZ doesn't do all we say. FIND BURGLAR AT FREE LUNCH BAR

Stolen Whisky Beside Him Shatters Excuse for Breaking Window.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The saloon of William Gidhanev almost adjoins the harbor police station, only a vacant lot being between, but this fact did not deter a burglar from smashing the glass panel of the door and breaking in at 3 o'clock this morning. Morse Patterson, saloon owner, heard the shattering of the pane and seeing someone inside, went to the station, summoned Patrolman Higgins, and returned. The officer's captured William Stewart, an engineer, whom they looked for burglar. Stewart protested his innocence, saying he had been locked in the place. The proprietor denied this and called attention to the fact that a quart bottle of whisky, which had been stolen from the saloon, was lying on the free lunch counter, which Stewart had been standing when the police surprised him.

TO BE RELEASED AFTER 12 YEARS

Three Accused of Insurance Frauds Will Be Freed by Diaz.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 17.—After twelve years' confinement in Mexican prisons, Leslie E. Hulbert, once a lawyer connected with the district attorney's office here, his brother-in-law, William Mitchell, and their alleged accomplice in insurance frauds, Dr. Charles S. Harle of Abilene, Tex., are to be released.

This information came today to the office of the district attorney in a letter from the life insurance detective who brought about the conviction of Hulbert and his companions. Hulbert was confined in San Juan de Ulloa prison when Felix Diaz was sent there and the latter became interested in the lawyer. With Diaz's attainment of power he obtained the pardon of the men.

HIGH INTEREST FOR WESTERN FARMERS

Paid 8.55 Per Cent for Three to Six Months Loans in 1912.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Farmers of the United States paid an average of 7.75 per cent interest on three to six months' loans during 1912. An inquiry made by the Department of Agriculture disclosed. In March, nearly 3,000 letters were sent by the department to country banks inquiring the rates paid by farmers. About 90 per cent of the bankers replied and their answers indicate the rate was slightly less than in 1911 when 7.75 per cent was paid.

In the North Atlantic states the rate was 5.95 per cent; south Atlantic 7.6 per cent; north central states east of the Mississippi, 6.33 per cent; northern central states west of the Mississippi, 8.05 per cent; southern central states, 6.51 per cent; and far western states, 8.55 per cent.

PROGRESSIVES ARE SCORED AT BANQUET

LOS ANGELES, April 17.—Justices of the state Supreme Court and visiting jurists from many California counties heard last night a vicious denunciation of the attitude upon the judiciary of Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Hiram Johnson, late candidates for president and vice-president, as alleged to have been voiced by them during the campaign.

The Progressive leaders were criticized by George S. Patton, an attorney, at a banquet of the Los Angeles Bar Association.

"By appealing to the passion instead of the minds of the populace," said Patton, "Roosevelt and Johnson created hysterical prejudice and by such action courts and lawyers were brought into disrepute."

Miss Myrtle Howell gave the second of a series of informal evenings last night at her studio. An exhibition of her latest paintings was the chief feature of the evening. This picture, "The Awakening," was recently on public exhibition at the Hotel Oakland. The residence was beautifully decorated with white and ferns, and "500" was played during the evening.

Among the guests were Judge and Mrs. Louderback of San Francisco, Mrs. Francis Fellows, Miss Wyatt, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Outlier, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Howell, Miss Myrtle Howell, Walton de Pelaton, Leslie Freeman and Mr. Bradbury.

WILSON IN FAVOR OF CHANGES, IS DECLARED

HONOLULU, April 17.—Considerable interest yesterday centered around a report that the source of which is not known, but which has gained wide circulation, to the effect that President Wilson is in favor of an amendment to the organic act which would create the territory of Hawaii, that would enable a resident of that island to become governor of Hawaii. This report has provoked widespread discussion.

There are now a number of Hawaiians in the national capital looking for a responsible political position with a hopeful eye upon the governorship. E. M. Watson has started for Washington to join the small army of aspirants to chief executive honors.

DENIES CHARGES. April 19.—William H. Schroeder, the engineer, indicted last week by a grand jury in connection with the wreck of the Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western railroad, said today that he was not guilty of the charge of manslaughter in the second degree, when arrested here today. He was released under $2,000 bail. Trial was set for the May term of court.

ORPHEUM.

This is Plum Pudding week in the Oakland Orpheum. Ten big, juicy plum puddings, every one of them the sort that makes one long for more.

Thomas B. Mason and Marguerite Keeler are by general consent the best of the plum offerings. Plums fall out of this dish in great quantities, the plums in this case being laugh periods that are a bit of the fun in the way of good comedy that come to vaudeville. Porter Emerson Brown, successful author of successful comedies is responsible for "In and Out," in which Mason and Keeler are appearing.

George F. Hobart, another writer of successful comedies, is also represented among the plum offerings. His work is that three-act romance in tabloid form, "An Opening Night," under the direction of Joseph Hart, a producer who offers many plums to vaudeville audiences.

Five luscious plums appear in the act of the Muskatigiris, and Estelle Churchill, the plumpest, jolliest plum that appears in the big list. The list is a long one. Charles F. Semon, Harry Brown, Mrs. Dolores Valletta and her leopard, Rolando Brothers, Bobby Barry and Amy Mortimer, the Edison Talking Moving Pictures and the Orpheum orchestra.

MACDONOUGH. Max Dill, far-famed as a German comedian, comes to the Macdonough theater, for a three-night stay. "In Dutch" will be his vehicle and critics agree that the clever little actor has never been seen to better advantage than in this laugh-producing play.

Dill and his merry-makers have just returned from a trip on the road that has been productive of success from every standpoint. The company rejoices in the record of having attracted crowded houses at every stop and having manufactured more laughs than any three preceding companies.

There is to Dill's very appearance—the stage—something that starts the giggles going before he has even opened his mouth. When the latter happens, the audience has been prepared for the best and are soon reduced to a state of helplessness, brought about by too much laughter.

Dill will be seen at three night performances and a matinee.

COLUMBIA.

"Swells and Belles," Dillon & King's latest musical comedy success is pleasing large audiences at the Columbia Theater this week. The skit contains many amusing scenes, much witty dialogue, charming musical numbers, pretty girls and handsome costumes. There is a splendid assortment of parts to suit the individual talents of the players. Dillon & King have never appeared to better advantage than in the roles assigned to them in the present offering. Ernest Van Felt is cast in the different role of Lord Byron while Marie Beatty enacts the character of Flora with unusual skill. Charlie Kelly as Guy and Jesse Perry as the girl in the case are all that could be desired. Al West, Clarence Wurdig and Mattie Townsend, handle small parts exceedingly well.

The action takes place within the home of Mike Dooley. The plot chiefly involves a mortgage held by Dooley on the estate of his Hebrew friend, Ike. Many amusing complications result when Mike endeavors to capture the coveted paper.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

EDISON IS SUBJECT OF SCHOOL DEBATE

In one of the most brilliant debates ever held in the Grant school, the boys and girls of the graduating classes debated last night the question of whether or not more for humanity than any other inventor yesterday afternoon, when they conducted the first debate of the year. The contest was won by the affirmative side, which consisted of Marion Fennon, captain; Winifred Brown, Thomas Young, Helen Kelley and Donald Lebo.

The negative side of the question was given by Harold Masters, captain; Thomas Gilman, Clifford Hildebrand, Frances Fender and Philip Stearns.

The judges awarded the decision upon the preparatory work, delivery and argument. The juvenile orators representing both sides were complimented upon their speeches. The judges were Miss Elizabeth Sherman, supervisor of the grammar school work in the local schools, and Mr. Allison, supervisor of the high school. The class teachers in attendance were Miss Perry and Miss E. Danielwitz.

I. W. W. THREATEN A HUNGER STRIKE

Bread and Water Distasteful to "Workers" in the Denver Jail.

DENVER, Colo. April 17.—Following the precepts of London militant suffragettes who apparently have been successful, sixty imprisoned members of the Industrial Workers of the World began a hunger strike in the city jail yesterday morning. About forty of them, however, are not ready to renounce the food.

The breakfast, lunch and dinner menu for those Industrial Workers who were given two months' sentences in the jail have been bread and water. The police department has taken the attitude that no more food or attention than absolutely necessary will be bestowed upon this particular class of prisoners. Consequently a meeting of the prisoners was held with a view of action being passed on the call, and the hunger strike declared. Some of the strikers are striking for better food, while others are striking for liberty.

No additional members of the organization have arrived in Denver, those who were en route to this city evidently having effected a safe detour after having learned of the fate which befell the first 100 Industrial Workers of the World, who attempted to enter here.

'SOPH' PRESIDENT IS PERSECUTED

Head of Columbia Class Kidnapped on Eve of Annual Banquet.

NEW YORK, April 16.—While the sophomore class of Columbia is indulging in terrapin and squab at its annual class dinner tonight its president, William Brophy, will probably be subsisting on bread and water or whatever nourishment a party of freshmen into whose hands he has fallen, will give him. It was learned today that during an early morning stroll near his home in Yonkers yesterday half a dozen masked freshmen, driving up in a closed carriage, seized the sophomore president and drove away with him to the city. The sophomores have since been unable to find Brophy.

Another kidnapping, in which a number of sophomores planned to capture six first-year students with the idea of having them furnish entertainment at the banquet, was frustrated by Dean Koppel, who put the sophomores to flight.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from some form of feminine disorder is told that an operation is necessary, it of course frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital operating table and the surgeon's knife strikes terror to her heart, and no wonder. It is quite true that some of these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but thousands of women have avoided the necessity of an operation by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This fact is attested by the grateful letters they write to us after their health has been restored.

These Two Women Prove Our Claim.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was my good health to my medicine."

Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS Cary Me.

Charlotte, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I even lifted a chair it would cause a hemorrhage. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health and am the mother of a nice baby girl. You can use this letter to help other suffering women."

Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Wyona St., Charlotte, N. C.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman submit to a surgical operation without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with women's troubles should fail to try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

'ALPS FOOTHILLS,' SAYS TRAVELER

Rich Yankee Finds Monte Carlo Is a Great Disappointment.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Frederick H. Miller, a wealthy carriage manufacturer of Evanston, Ill., does not like Europe or Egypt. He said so yesterday on returning from his first vacation in forty years.

"I feel just like a rube who has bought a gold brick," said Miller. "I never got so badly stung in my life. Europe is the biggest bunk in the world. The Alps are nothing but foothills. You could lose them in the Rocky Mountains."

Venice smells to heaven. The health authorities in any village in the United States would clean up those dirt carrels in ten days. Monte Carlo is a joke. The gamblers there are pikers. The average traveling salesman in the United States plays a steeper game than they do there.

"My only memory of Berlin is stale beer and rotten cigars I brought back some of the cigars to hand to alleged friends."

"Paris is a city of cheap side shows. The boasted beauty of Paris women fades when compared with some girls I know in Evanston."

"London is only a city of gloom fog and influenza."

Except as described as a land of awful smells and moth-eaten camels.

Mrs. Canino is a sister of Miss Juliet Hero, who brought a breach of promise suit against Dr. Anabel Zelazky, a nephew of former president of Nicaragua, two years ago.

DR. F. C. E. MADISON NAMED MEDICAL SOCIETY HEAD

Spirited Fight Results in Santa Barbara Winning Next Session

Following a spirited fight between the advocates of the two rival cities, Santa Barbara last night was chosen over Riverside as the place of next year's annual convention of the Medical Society of the State of California. The matter was decided at last night's meeting of the house of delegates, composed of delegates from the various county societies affiliated with the state organization. The house was evenly divided on the matter, and some lobbying was done by proponents of the different cities before a decision was finally arrived at.

The election of the new officers for the coming year was done by acclamation, the convention city being the only issue that required the casting of a ballot.

DR. MADISON, PRESIDENT.
Succeeding Dr. D. Hamilton of Oakland, Dr. F. C. E. Madison of Pasadena was named president for the coming year, his office to be held until the 1914 convention. The other officers elected were:

First vice-president, Dr. Barton J. Powell of Stockton, second vice-president, Dr. George Tucker of Riverside; secretary, Dr. P. M. Jones of San Francisco, counselor, second district, Los Angeles, Dr. George H. Krenn, counselor, sixth district, San Francisco, Dr. C. G. Kenyon, counselor, eighth district, Sacramento, Dr. James H. Parkinson, counselor-at-large, Dr. O. D. Hamlin of Oakland, the retiring president.

Dr. A. D. Grosse of Berkeley was appointed to fill a vacancy on the committee on scientific research. Drs. Fred S. Gundrum of Sacramento and T. C. Edwards of Salinas were appointed to the committee on legal and medical ethics.

A committee on public health was appointed as follows:

Dr. C. C. Browning of Los Angeles, Dr. T. C. King of Bannock, Dr. William F. Snow of Sacramento, Dr. G. F. Broderick of San Francisco and Dr. N. F. Foster of Oakland.

Drs. George Hare of Fresno and V. G. Vecchi of San Francisco were chosen delegates to the American Medical Society, with Dr. L. Adams of Alameda, and Dr. J. H. Rixford of San Francisco as attendants.

SCIENTIFIC DISCUSSION

Last night's session of the house of delegates concluded the official portion of the program of the convention, although the morning session will be devoted to the discussion of the various subjects which were held mostly along the lines of treatment and prevention of contagious diseases. Chief of Police Walter J. Peters.

NUPTIALS TAKEN ON 'MOVIE' FILM

Pictures Will Enable Families to See How Knot Was Tied.

DENVER, Colo. April 17.—Harry L. Rand of this city and Helen Stanford of Salt Lake City, wanted to repeat the marriage ceremony in the presence of their families. Circumstances prevented the appearance of any relatives, so yesterday it was decided that the entire ceremony would be taken on motion picture film.

Therefore, every action of the young couple from the time Rand kissed the bride-to-be at the station yesterday until the conclusion of the ceremony was recorded on motion picture film.

The Rev. A. A. Tanner of the First Congregational church of this city performed the ceremony. Rand is the son of H. L. Rand of Salt Lake City, manager of a motion picture studio. Rand is the brother-in-law of S. A. Stanford of the same city.

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunshine to Brighten It.

There is usually a certain degree of dread in the woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of childbirth. But, thanks to a most remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, all fear is banished and the period is one of unbounded joy and anticipation.

Mother's Friend is used externally. It is a most penetrating application, makes the muscles of the stomach and back pliant, so they expand easily and naturally without pain, without distress and without those of that painful and dangerous and other symptoms that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are held up to reprobation; they are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and brighten the homes of a host of happy families.

There are thousands of women who have used Mother's Friend, and thus know from experience that it is one of our greatest contributions to healthy, happy motherhood. It is a business in its nature, and is especially recommended as a preventive of caking breasts and all other such distresses.

FERMENTOLOGY

CHICAGO

April 1, 1911.
Mr. Alfred Uihlein
Schlitz Brewing Co.
Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Sir:

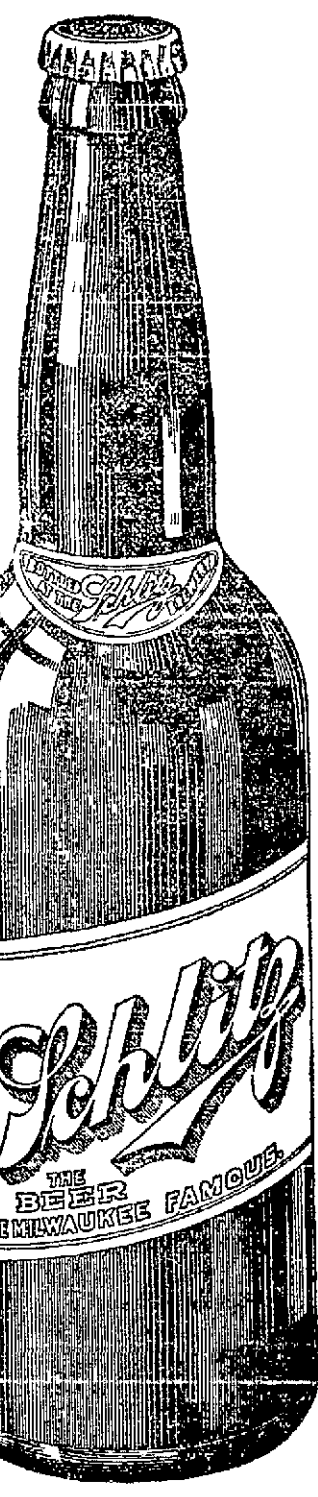

Answering your favor of recent date in regard to the influence of light on the quality of beer, will say that our observations, extending over the last twenty-five years, have convinced us beyond a doubt that exposure of beer to light has a very detrimental influence on its quality generally, but especially upon the flavor of the beer.

We have tested beers repeatedly in this direction placing the bottles into direct sunlight, and testing the same after one, two, three and five minutes exposure, found that the beer with three and five minutes exposure became undrinkable on account of the peculiar odor developed.

The detrimental effect of light upon beer can be successfully counteracted by the employment of brown or dark colored glass bottles, and such bottles are therefore recommendable.

Yours very truly,
RWB
Wahl-Henius Institute

Extract from letter to Mr. Alfred Uihlein, written by Robert Wahl, President of the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology, Inc., Chicago.

"Beer bottles should be manufactured from reddish-brown glass, inasmuch as same will to a much higher degree than any other kind of glass, minimize the influence of the rays of light on the quality of beer, and will protect the latter against acquiring the disagreeable taste (Sonnengeschmack) due to the chemical action of the light."

"In white and green glass bottles the beer is most affected by the action of the light. Such bottles are, therefore, absolutely inappropriate and should never be employed by brewers." (Signed) Prof. Dr. F. Schonfeld.

From the Illustrated Brewery Encyclopedia, p. 99 (Illustrations: Brauer, Leskau). Published by Max Debrunck, First Counselor, Professor at the Royal Agricultural College and Director of the Institute for Fermentology at Berlin. Berlin 1910.

"Bottles of strong glass should be selected. They should never be of colorless glass, inasmuch as through the influence of light the beer will not only take on a disagreeable odor and taste, but will also become turbid." (Lutner.)

Extract from Die Malz und Bierbereitung. Published by E. Leyser, Director of the Brewing Academy in Augsburg. Tenth Edition, Stuttgart, 1900, page 680.

"The beer in the white glass bottle had taken on disagreeable odor and taste and was absolutely undrinkable. The beer in the dark bottles did not show this peculiar odor and taste." (G. Beck.)

Translation of Extract from Zeitschrift für das gesamte Brauwesen, 1882—page 370.

"It is interesting to note the observation that beer in colorless bottles exposed to diffused light will undergo a change, precipitating a heavy sediment and taking on a disagreeable odor and taste."

FIGHT REOPENING OF WATER LANDS

Protest Is Made Against the Entries to Property in Modoc.

OROVILLE, April 17.—Asserting that the future development of the Sacramento valley, as far as irrigation is concerned, and the navigation of its rivers and their flood control was largely bound up in the preservation of the reservoir sites that have been withdrawn from entry by the Federal Government, W. A. Board, formerly a member of the Roosevelt Country Life Commission, appeared before the Chamber of Commerce last evening and voiced a vigorous protest against the measure introduced in Congress by Congressman Baker, by which certain reservoir sites in Big Valley, in Lassen and Modoc counties, and in Round and Pitt river valleys in Modoc county, are proposed to be thrown open to entry.

Board, who has had extensive experience in reclamation matters, asserted that the engineers of the reclamation service had outlined in a tentative manner for the Sacramento valley a most gigantic scheme of irrigation, which would include in its scope power development, making navigable the streams of the Sacramento valley and their control during times of flood.

It was for the furtherance of this big project, which is yet but in process of formation, he declared, that the reservoir sites had been withdrawn from entry.

AUTO TOUR CHIEF STARTS FOR HOME

Indiana Motor Car Executive Enthusiastic Over Coast Program.

(By EDMUND CRINNON.)

"An event, until we meet in July, I've had the busiest time of my life in the busiest state in the Union."
It was Charles B. Warren's farewell greeting to a group of friends at the ferry building as he shook the dust of San Francisco from his heels yesterday and departed for Kokomo, Ind., his home town, and the home of the Haynes Automobile Company, of which he is general manager. For just one month Warren has been a visitor to this state. His mission to the Golden West was to promote interest in the big transcontinental tour this summer—the great autumn trip for the prophecies ocean-to-ocean highway. It has been a month filled with incidents which would rival the most of it in the history of the state.
Arrived March 13.
Mid of the last stages of the mumps.

Traveled 2800 miles by railroad in the state.
Made fifty-seven speeches on the coming transcontinental tour.
Attended twenty-eight banquets scattered from Canada to Mexico.
Traveled several hundred miles by automobile (Haynes car) on sight-seeing trips in and around the San Francisco Bay region.

Rode in the Haynes "race for life" car at Venice.

Learned to dance the "turkey trot,"
"Texas Tommy" and "grizzly bear." In return for which he introduced to San Francisco, the popular middle Eastern dance, the "Kokomo Kumb.".

Added twelve pounds to his weight.

Escaped the Indiana floods.
Warren's final fling occurred Tuesday when he addressed a gathering of railroad officials and business men.

As president of the Indiana Automobile Association, Warren, under the auspices of which will take place the tour of the Hoosier state motorists this summer, Warren has made a valuable impression on the Pacific Coast for that organization. In return he will bring the gospel of California's wholesome hospitality, her glorious sunshine and wonderful scenery all through the East as it has never before been presented. The result will be a bigger pilgrimage of motorists to this coast at the time of the tour than was ever dreamed of when the idea first presented itself.

More than a score of machines have already been entered in the tour, including two Haynes cars, and the most conservative estimate shows that more than fifty machines will be in the caravan when it departs from Indianapolis on July 4. It will be the biggest automobile event ever recorded in the history of motoring and as the result of it California is to be honored with the greatest automobile distinction ever accorded any state in the Union.

HESSE RETURNS.

Walter J. Hesse, identified with the Pearl Building fire house, has returned again to Oakland after a week's trip to Los Angeles, where he was called by the death of his sister, Mrs. H. Kattenborn, a resident of the Southland.

STUDENTS SCORE HIT AT BIG GLEE CLUB CONCERT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—"Old grades" and new, undergraduates and outsiders, the members of the "barber shop" and classical harmonies crowded the Scottish Rite auditorium last night at the annual San Francisco concert of the glee club of the University of California.

Audience received the unusually elaborate program with enthusiasm, and many encores were given in response to insistent applause. E. W. Rader and Biles Jackson gave piano selections, and the Roy Allen completed the instrumental selections with a cornet solo. Leon Eitinger sang a baritone solo, the California Octet sang several selections, and
W. L. Larson did a "specialty." C. F.
Tuttle was on the bill for a whistling solo and Dickson Maddox for a character turn.

Clinton R. Morris is director of the club. George D. MacDonald, general manager, and M. C. Matthews, stage director. E. B. Peterson and Harold Bragg are assistant stage directors.

WANTED—JOKE FOUNDRY, FOR BIG PROPOSITION.

"Richard's little old offer of his kingdom for a horse was nothing compared to what I'd give for a new fat woman joke," wrote Natalie Churchill, the "plum-drummer with the Musical Girls at the Orpheum this week.

According to Miss Churchill, the trouble is with Nat M. Willis, the king of tramps, who has cornered the fat woman joke market. Miss Churchill has fringed some of the best known jokesmiths at Gotham, but their product have failed to go, and the sorely tried young woman continues to lean on her hot-day-shadow story. To date it has never failed her, but she declares it is growing threadbare with age, and the two great varieties of her life are that she might believe in thin, or her joke might fail some day.

To find a substitute Miss Churchill is giving the public a chance, and will pay real money for a fat woman joke that will go. She can always be reached care of the Orpheum.

FRATERNITY MEN WILL JOIN IN BIG BANQUET

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The forty-fourth annual banquet of the cific coast will be held Saturday evening at the Palace Hotel under the direction of Zeta chapter at Stanford.

nounces an interesting program, including selections by the Canyon
Mandolin club of California and the Los Altos quartet of Stanford, with Wagon, pianist and Edgar Edward Stillman in musical novelties.

United States Subtreasurer William
C. Ralston will be toastmaster.

CUPID'S BLINDNESS PUZZLES MRS. GRUNDY AND HER FRIENDS

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

older than she looks." As long as he why other people should be concerned over why, he didn't care a fig about it. What did the rich man's potato, "You couldn't tell by the blossom what the ground covered amounted to." He feels hurt that his relatives do not see her in the same light that he does. The love of a lifetime which he bears them may be strained thereby.

In short, there is one thing certain with him: No matter how many faults she might have, he was certainly blind to one and all of them. He may have been used to luxury all his life.
But that does not bring happiness. He tells his friends. He feels more at home and better contented in her little flat, as she sits opposite him pouring the coffee and eating the delicious biscuits made by her own hands, than in his mother's sumptuous dining room at home, all a-glitter with cut glass and solid silver, the food of his home prepared by chefs and servants galore, who are not interested a particle as to how he likes the food, but whose only interest is that he will finish his meal quickly that the duty may be over.

Outsiders, even those nearest and dearest to a man, cannot know just what the bond of sympathy, deepening into love, is which draws a man to some particular woman, unattractive as she may appear. If every man was attracted, each and all, to the same woman, the remainder of the world of women might have cause to weep and look askance at her.
No woman need worry over the fact that she is too plain to attract a man—nay, homely—to attract love. Each man looks through his own pair of love's rosy glasses. Her surroundings have nothing to do with true love when it has once touched his heart. The greatest most brilliant of men have been proud to win the love and the hand in marriage of the humblest of women. Their liking for some particular girl may not be understood by his friends, but Cupid understands—aye, he knows all about it—for he planned out the whole affair of supposedly unaccountable liking.

WHEN HE SAYS "TAKE A CHAIR."

Dear Miss Libbey: What should a girl say when a man arises and says, "Take a chair." What words should a girl say when a man asks to take her home and when he asks to take her any place?
Also what should she say when a man takes her home? Should one always thank men when they take her home or to the dance? What should I say when a fellow asks me to eat supper with him?
I have never been out enough and was never taught the rules of etiquette. I can't go because I have no train. I go.
I live in the "Thank you" is the proper thing to say when a young man offers you a seat. When a man asks if he may accompany you home, say "Thank you; I shall be pleased to have you." On any occasion when a man extends courtesy to you thank him simply. I would suggest that you obtain a copy of Margaret Sangster's "Good Manners for Every Occasion." This book is helpful.
Indeed, along the line in which you have been so advanced, it can be secured at almost any good book store.

SHE IS AN ORPHAN.

Dear Miss Libbey: I am an orphan.
My mother dying when I was only 14 months old. My aunt took and kept me until she died, which was in 1900. I am now 18, working for myself. I am in love with a young man two years my senior; have been going with him for two years, until four months ago. We had a little trouble. My people objected to our friendship. He went away. Have gone with several other young men, trying to forget him, but it is impossible.
There is another young man that thinks lots of me. He is several years older than myself. He used to go to dances, drink, and had all kinds of bad habits until he met me. He doesn't go to anything now unless I go with him. He won't have anything to do with other girls or even try to have a good time if I am not laughing all the time. I am a girl that laughs and smiles all the time.
I try to be happy and try my best to make all that are around me happy. I think lots of this young man. He is real good to me. Tell me, would you marry the one that's older than myself or wait for the other to return? I want to tell you, since he has been gone a friend of mine found a letter addressed to me. It was brought to me. I opened it and it stated that he was out trying to make a home for two; that he loved me better than life; for me to wait two of three years. I do not know what to think of the matter. He hasn't anything where the other has plenty, such as a farm, a team, and a confectionery here in town.

I think you'd better wait for the first young man if you love him better than the other. You have plenty of time to wait. Eighteen is much too young to marry, for marriage brings responsibilities almost too heavy for one so young.
Your girlhood days, too, are far the happiest days. Instead of shortening them with marriage you should try to prolong them as much as possible. I am sure the first fellow will return to you when he is in a position to offer you a decent home.
It may take a couple of years, but by that time you will both be better fitted to assure the responsibilities of married life.

HE HAS PROPOSED.

Dear Miss Libbey: I have been corresponding with a young man for the last seven months. This young man has proposed and insists on waiting until I am of age. I am 16 and he is six years my senior. I love this young man dearly, but he sent me a ring Christmas I did not appreciate. I think he should have sent me something nice if he loves me like he says he does. Sometimes he does not write quite as affectionately as at other times.
O. C., you don't love the fellow at all!
That's all there is to it. If you did you would not be measuring his affection for you by the value of the gift. You are entirely too young to be engaged, anyway. You'd better put out of your head all thoughts of marriage until you are a few years older.

It is generally the woman on whom a man would surerly consider as a heart winner who carries off
the highest prize in the matrimonial market.
Mrs. Grundy and her 300 bosom friends gathered together in a solemn conclave and expressed wonder as to how it happened. They all agree as to the following, however. That she was not may nor could be boast of notable ancestry. She had a hard time in keeping up appearances. She dressed like a dowdy, was no conversationalist, had no accomplishments, and last, but by no means least, was one of those women who were very apt to err about in guessing her years. She usually looked like 25, but for all that a decade or more might be added to it.
It is usually a man's family who cannot understand, for the sake of them, what there was about such a woman to attract such a sensible man as they believed their son or brother to be.

It is patent to the relatives, Mrs.
Grundy, in fact, to all who have given serious thought to love—that there is little use in multiplying words or in losing breath to try to convince a man who is in love that the object of his affection comes far short of being the marvelous creature his fancy painted her. Her plain, if not irregular, features assume beauty in his eyes. And as to her not being a brilliant conversationalist, this is believed by him to be shyness and maidenly modesty on her part. He actually admires her dowdyish looks. He declares she is a daughter of nature and not a fashion plate, all of which is to her credit.
And as to her age, the woman has no doubt been satisfied he would not understand over it. And as for her ancestry—
why, he didn't care a fig about it. What did the rich man's potato, "You couldn't tell by the blossom what the ground covered amounted to." He feels hurt that his relatives do not see her in the same light that he does. The love of a lifetime
which he bears them may be strained there-

DIRIGIBLE SEEN OVER NEWPORT

Residents Puzzled by Appearance of Big Air Craft.

NEWPORT, Ore., April 17.—A dirigible balloon was sighted yesterday afternoon over the ocean northwest of here and traveling north. The air craft was only a short distance from shore and was observed by a number of persons. It was in plain view for some time.

BALLOON SIGHTED.

FORTLAND, Ore., April 17.—For the second time within thirty-six hours a dirigible balloon has been sighted within one hundred miles of the Columbia river.
Rumors have circulated on several occasions during the past month, both from Newport and Seaside, of a mysterious airship ording along the Oregon coast, but until yesterday morning when it was said to have been observed traveling south by several people at Seaside, the rumors have been too unreliable to warrant credence. Yesterday and today, however, the mysterious vessel is said to have been seen by a number of people. A telephone message from Port Stevens, from where people at Seaside believe the craft started, produced only the statement that the story was a "huge fake," and so far as was known at the fort there is no dirigible balloon on the Pacific coast.

NAVAL GENERAL BOARD TO BE REDUCED IN SIZE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Reduction of the membership of the naval general board, of which Admiral Dawey is president, is expected to result in the dropping of the aid for material, aid for personnel and the president of the naval war college.

The reason for the change is understood to be a desire to relieve the officers named from the heavy loads upon their time by reason of their prolonged attendance on the board meetings.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life.
Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dealing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrup and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.
Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

BERKELEY GOSSIP & STUDENTS AND SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS OF DAY IN THE ISLAND CITY ALAMEDA

CITY COUNCIL TO BE REORGANIZED

Conference Will Be Held Tomorrow Night in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—Council President E. B. Bullock has called a conference of the city council with Mayor-elect Frank C. Taylor for tomorrow night to consider re-organization of the council and such other matters as may come up for consideration. Presumably the members of the old council, the incoming councilmen, Mayor-elect Taylor and Mayor W. H. Hoy will make up the list of those present at the conference, according to current rumor. This general conference is in line with previous forms of preparing for a change of administration.

There are several municipal places which will be vacated this month. The term of Superintendent of Streets V. M. Froden expires April 22, and that of City Engineer L. N. Chapman expires April 23. The term of the board of city engineers would mean an entire change of office staff. Assistant Superintendent of Streets Fred L. Krumpholtz holds office by ordinance. Abolishing the ordinance would abolish Krumpholtz's place. The mayor appoints the city engineer and the council names the street superintendent. The council also names the city attorney, whose term expires August 5 of this year.

The council will name a new financial trustee on April 22, when George H. Atchley's term expires, and the mayor will name a new city and fire commissioner on April 23, when Commissioner Frank J. Smith's term expires.

REORGANIZATION MAY BE. President Wymore of the board of electricity will end his term on April 25, and the electricity department was a favorite object of assault by the non-partisan. About a dozen members of the board hold office in this department are worrying over impending changes, though the other two commissioners hold office for only two years more, respectively. The board was driven into public print to defend the commission from statements of former Mayor E. Taylor, who said that the power behind the throne in the non-partisan camp. Meredith will probably go voluntarily.

The board of health employees, including city physician, food inspector, sanitary inspector, city chemist and poundmaster, are in the hands of the non-partisan of the board hold office. Dr. McQueen's term expires April 22. The council names the board members and the board appoints the salaried employees.

TERM EXPIRES. The term of President J. B. Lanktree of the board of education ends on June 15, and Lanktree is one of the "features" of the non-partisan campaign. The board of education now stands three and two on many matters. Should a new appointee succeed Lanktree and stand with the present minority, composed of Dr. W. T. Lum and James S. Shanley, radical changes might follow.

The campaign for jobs the market shows an over-supply, with fresh shipments arriving daily. It is rumored that E. A. Larkins who delivered the Socialist platform at the recent election, is slated to succeed John Davies as building inspector.

There is a well-founded rumor that the recent settlement of the fire department agitation over the selection of a fire chief may not be settled for all time. It is said that Assistant Fire Chief Frank K. Millington will again be a candidate for chief. In the event an opportunity for change is brought about by the new police and fire board. There might also be a change of police chief. It is rumored with more or less seriousness that A. P. Smith, once before regarded as a candidate for chief of police, would not be adverse to again entering the running. J. G. Kearney, present a county deputy, is also figured as a likely applicant for a place of some kind. A report that former Mayor E. K. Taylor would like the city attorney's job, while seriously considered in some quarters, is believed to be lacking any special significance. Howard K. James is a candidate for this place.

It is probable that the non-partisans will re-create the park and playground commission. There will be several appointments in that department to fill.

ALAMEDA FIREMEN ARE GIVEN PRAISE

ALAMEDA, April 17.—That the Alameda Fire Department is vastly superior in point of efficiency to the Los Angeles organization was the statement of Mrs. L. R. Hill of 1490 San Jose avenue, following the killing of a fire which for a few moments threatened her home at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The statement was prompted by the efficient action of the firemen in extinguishing the blaze in the roof of her home, but in caring for the chemical spilled, mopping up the fluid and thereby saving the disfigurement of the plaster on her ceiling and walls.

The property is owned by Mrs. Ida A. Taylor. The account Mrs. Hill stated that she had been in three fires in Los Angeles, and had been burned out in each one. The damage will amount to $50, fully covered by insurance.

SAYS SHE WON UTAH DIVORCE

Wireless Operator's Wife Says Suit of Husband Is Unnecessary.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—George S. Hubbard, who married in haste, about a year ago, pretty Martha Jarvis, filed suit for divorce in this county last Friday. Mrs. Hubbard was in Alameda yesterday afternoon and said her husband might as well save time, worry and money, as she secured a divorce from him in the Utah court recently. Mrs. Hubbard brought suit while living in Ogden with her relatives. She declares that she was given her degree of separation on the ground of incompatibility of temperament. She also says the court made her accept Miss Bertha Jarvis by permitting her to resume her maiden name.

Hubbard alleges that his wife called him a sissy, expressed a determination to go on the stage and also took a lady friend to room with her, sending her husband home to his wife in this city. Hubbard was wireless operator on the wrecked Pacific Mail liner Asia, which was lost in the China Sea, and was one of the crew who helped to rescue the Chinese pirates who attempted to loot the stranded vessel. He later secured a position as wireless operator on a coasting steamer plying between San Francisco and Northern ports. A sudden call to his new job found him in the midst of his plans for a wedding. About an hour's time to spare before the steamer sailed. He hunted up Miss Jarvis, secured a minister and a wedding party, and on the way North on his boat, arrived on the same afternoon. The couple lived together but a short time, the bride soon going to her old home in Utah where she is now residing. She came to Alameda to investigate the divorce action.

Mrs. Hubbard, or Miss Jarvis, as she calls herself, says that she sent word to Hubbard's father, P. I. Hubbard of Col. Adams, that she was going to file suit for legal separation, and that, therefore, young Hubbard knew of the pending action in the Utah court.

WANTED HER WED, TO WIN BROKERAGE

Friends Tried to Get Her Married, Declares the Brother.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—A husband was badly needed in Superior Judge Graham's court today. At least, a fair widow was on hand with an offer to wed if an eligible bachelor was about. She might not be so ready if she stopped to consider, but in the heat of a trying situation, she expressed herself as eligible. The woman was Mrs. Caroline Weber of 824 London street. The case was that of Mrs. Magdalena Schultz, aged 60, whose brother, Frank J. Ehrmann of 3070 Bryant street, wanted her declared incompetent, and himself appointed her guardian. He declared that his sister was in the hands of a number of women friends who were trying to have her get married so that they could get a commission from her husband when he should come into the possession of her property.

"Why, they have a man already staked out for Maggie," he protested.

It was then that Mrs. Weber jumped to her feet, declaring that the allegation was untrue.

"I am a widow myself," she exclaimed, "and if there was any marriageable man around I'd be taking him, not getting him for Mrs. Schultz."

The court thought that Mrs. Schultz was not incompetent, but that it was best to place her property in the hands of the San Francisco Savings Union, allowing her an income of $40 a month.

EXEMPTION WILL HURT BERKELEY

City Assessor Fears Effects of Bill Now Before the Legislature.

BERKELEY, April 17.—City Assessor Harry J. Squires has come out as an opponent of the homestead exemption bill now before the State Legislature. If it passes, according to Squires, it will limit Berkeley's income to a serious extent. Squires says:

"The measure will exempt from taxation homesteads of an assessed value of $1000 or less and will allow a reduction of $1000 on homesteads of greater value.

"The assessed real value of Berkeley is about $15,000,000. Everybody who has a home will probably seek advantage of the bill by homesteading. The state taxation system recently adopted cut off $1,500,000 from the state assessed valuation in corporation property. With 5000 homes in Berkeley, many assessed for less than $1000, and many others assessed at more than $2000, the loss in tax income will be amazing."

VISITORS PRAISE LOCAL HOSPITAL

Medical Association Members Witness Operation at Providence.

Twenty members of the State Medical Association witnessed an operation in Providence Hospital last evening, where Dr. John Forrester, Dr. George Bennett were in charge of the case. The physicians praised the equipment of that hospital and declared that the operating room could be favorably compared with that of the most modern European hospitals. Many compliments were tendered the hospital staff, the nurses and the heads of the association for the splendid manner in which the work of Providence hospital is being conducted.

WOMEN SCOURGED FOR NOT VOTING

Professor Thomas H. Reed of University Criticizes the Feminine Lassitude.

BERKELEY, April 17.—Women voters of this city came in for a warm roasting at the university yesterday at the hands of Professor Thomas H. Reed of the political science department in an address in his course on government in cities. Professor Reed, who has been making a study of municipal politics at first hand as spokesman for the campaign for mayor of Charles D. Heywood, declared that the women, by failing to vote in the recent bond election, had shown that their interest in the ballot will not remain active for an extended period.

"One-fourth of the feminine voters went to the polls at the bond election," said Professor Reed. "This is the percentage that voted upon a problem extremely vital to mothers—the playgrounds—and only 200 out of 500 women voted."

"We were told when the privilege of suffrage was requested that if we permitted the women to vote they would show interest in all municipal affairs. This is a poor fulfillment of their promise."

"The women, however, are not the only ones to blame. The men are nearly as bad. It is a hard thing to get the men to attend a meeting and listen to a discussion of political issues. An indictment of some kind is generally offered."

"One of the special attractions for the coming election in this city has announced a negro minstrel show for next Thursday night in the anticipation of securing a large audience. A prize fight, I would suggest, would bring even better results."

"For drastic action from the community at large. Why, I was at a fraternity house one afternoon, and three students who had not voted telephoned for an automobile to take them to the polls. When told that there was none to be had they refused to go to the booths and vote. I agree with President Wheeler in the use of a sawed-off shotgun to force these indifferent citizens to the polls."

STILL AT WORK ON MOORE CASE

Investigation Bureau Agents Probing Weather Department Irregularities.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Charges upon which President Wilson summarily removed Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, from office yesterday rested today in the Department of Justice, where agents of the bureau of investigation were at work upon them. None of the officials concerned went further today in detailing the charges against the weather bureau chief than to say they consisted of "irregularities," but Professor Moore in his own statement said they were based on his activities in working for appointment as secretary of agriculture.

The general allegation against Moore is that employees of the weather bureau, while on trips on government business, were utilized in addressing organizations and meetings in furtherance of his candidacy.

Rev. Fowler of Illinois, who has a reputation before the House for the investigation of the weather bureau, said it was founded on charges by James D. Berry, a former employee of the bureau, who said he had furnished President Wilson a list of forty employees of the weather bureau who, he alleged, have been advanced in salary an aggregate of $22,500 in the last five years in return for political work for the former president.

The Berry charges cover alleged "irregularities" extending over the last three or four years and refer principally to the alleged efforts to promote Professor Moore's candidacy for secretary of the agriculture.

SENATOR CASSIDY'S CONDITION IMPROVED

SACRAMENTO, April 17.—The condition of Senator Cassidy of San Francisco, who is seriously ill in a local hospital, was slightly improved today. Attending physicians say he has a chance to recover. He is suffering from uric poisoning.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HEAR IMMIGRATION MEN

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 17.—Immigration phases were discussed at a meeting of the University Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon by Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Grinnell College and Charles R. Towson, immigration and industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Steiner detailed facts he had learned in trips he had made across the Atlantic by steamer for the purpose of immigration studies.

Towson spoke with special reference to his experiences in mining and engineering camps, where efforts have been made to raise the standard of the industrial worker. He stated that much progress has been made in this work, and that it will be continued in future years with greater stimulus.

Both speakers were delegates to the immigration congress, which closed its sessions yesterday in San Francisco.

CANTATA TONIGHT FOR DAYTON FUND

ALAMEDA, April 17.—Rev. Charles L. Mears, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, announces all in readiness for the cantata "The Holy City," that is to be given this evening in the church by a chorus of 45 voices, assisted by Professor Randall of Oakland and several soloists. The first cantata given last Christmas tide proved so successful that there was a great demand that it be repeated for the benefit of the flood sufferers.

The program will be under the direction of Mrs. F. B. Collar, with H. B. Howard at the organ. A violin solo, "Ave Maria," by Handel, will be rendered during the intermission by Thomas Woodcock of Oakland.

No tickets will be sold or admission free charged, but a free-will offering will be taken up for the benefit of the flood victims.

ELECTION BOARD SEALS DEMANDS

Includes Pay Warrants With Election Return; Officials Unpaid.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—City Clerk Frank Browning is wondering today whether the election officials who took care of the balloting and returns in precinct 10 of this city at the recent municipal election will receive any pay for their services. The officials have not as yet commenced to wonder, for they do not know that they have done anything to jeopardize their chances of remuneration. But they have.

Under the election laws, the returns from the precincts, together with the ballots, must be sealed in an envelope and returned to the office of the city clerk. It is only in the event of an official recount being ordered that the clerk may open this envelope. The envelope, together with a statement of the election figures, is sealed in a second envelope which will be held here April 23 to 25, under the auspices of the booster committee, Loyal Order of Moose. Delegations from San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley and a special train from San Jose will help swell the crowds. The event will take place on the last night of the fair.

These demands were missing when the clerk looked for them Tuesday, and inquiry showed that the election officials had sealed them up in one of the envelopes. As the outside container must be opened next Monday evening, when the returns are canvassed, there is a hope that the demands will be found. If they are enclosed in the inside envelope, there is no telling what will be the procedure, or whether the clerks and judges will get their pay.

SAVES CHILD IN FACE OF DEATH

Patrolman Fraser Snatches Tot From Track in the Nick of Time.

BERKELEY, April 17.—By snatching a two-year-old child from the path of a rapidly approaching Southern Pacific locomotive on Shattuck avenue, Patrolman D. H. Fraser yesterday afternoon saved the child from death beneath the wheels. The boy is the son of L. L. Stein, a North Berkeley grocer. Toddling along behind his little red wheelbarrow, the boy started to cross the railroad track at Shattuck and Cedar. In the midst of the track the wheel of the barrow caught between two of the ties and the lad was unable to extricate it.

The Shattuck avenue local was rapidly approaching a half block away when Patrolman Fraser, who had been standing in the doorway of a store, saw the child's plight. He rushed from the sidewalk and snatched the little boy from his perilous position. The narrow escape which the child had was evidenced by the fact that Fraser was struck by the train and brushed to one side.

The apparatus was out in answer to a call for fire box 31, and was proceeding along Park street on a gallop. The hose wagon attached to the same station swung into Santa Clara avenue. Cody was following the hose wagon along Park street, his course being for Central avenue.

A woman, whose name was not learned, seeing the hose wagon turn into Santa Clara avenue, supposed that the chemical would follow and attempted to cross the street with the child. Cody came straight along Park street, and the woman, becoming confused, screamed and released her hold of the child, running to the sidewalk and leaving the little girl bewildered in the street.

Cody was quick to realize the danger, and not being able to pass between the child and the street car or the child and the curb, pulled his team down and managed to stop at the pole of the wagon brushed the little girl.

Bystanders cheered the ability of the fireman to handle his team. The little girl was taken away by her mother, and the team proceeded to the fire.

FIREMAN'S SKILL PREVENTS DEATH

Engine Driver Stops Galloping Team in Time to Save Child.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—To the ability of John B. Cody, driver of chemical engine No. 1, is due the fact that a little eight-year-old child is alive today. Cody having stopped the galloping team in the nick of time to save the child at the corner of Park street and Santa Clara avenue late yesterday afternoon.

The apparatus was out in answer to a call for fire box 31, and was proceeding along Park street on a gallop. The hose wagon attached to the same station swung into Santa Clara avenue. Cody was following the hose wagon along Park street, his course being for Central avenue.

A woman, whose name was not learned, seeing the hose wagon turn into Santa Clara avenue, supposed that the chemical would follow and attempted to cross the street with the child. Cody came straight along Park street, and the woman, becoming confused, screamed and released her hold of the child, running to the sidewalk and leaving the little girl bewildered in the street.

ALAMEDA, April 17.—At an inquest held by Coroner C. L. Tisdale at the local morgue yesterday, an inquiry into the death of Rev. Guy Hamilton, who passed away following a fall from a car Sunday evening, the verdict of the jury was death from a basal fracture of the skull sustained in accidentally falling from a street car.

The aged divine was on his way to attend services at the First Methodist Church of this city and prepared to leave the car when he was evidently overcome with faintness and fell to the street. The car crew was exonerated from blame.

BRIDE ARRESTED AS A KIDNAPER

Honeymoon Terminated Suddenly by Action of Groom's Parents.

PAULO ALTO, April 17.—The honeymoon of Mrs. Burton P. Bassett was suddenly terminated here yesterday when she was arrested on a charge of kidnapping her husband, a student of 17 years. The boy's family has employed counsel to bring annulment proceedings.

Miss Clarence Brooks came out from Denver a few weeks ago with her mother to visit the Bassetts at their home in Channing avenue. The elder Bassett, now deceased, was formerly an attorney of the Colorado city and the Brooks were old friends.

Young Bassett is attending a preparatory school in this city for entry to Stanford University. His mother, W. W. Bassett, is well known in track circles in the university and is a member of the team which will compete Saturday.

The student fell in love with the fair visitor under his mother's roof and last Saturday appeared in Redwood City and asked County Clerk Joseph H. Nash for a marriage license.

GOES TO FRIEND'S AID; SLASHED; REPENTED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—If William Wilson, colored, had it to do over again he wouldn't do it. This morning when on his way to his hotel at 400 Pacific street, he saw a friend getting held up by two white men. The victim had the worst of the argument and the thugs were about to go through his pocket when Wilson stepped into the situation. His coming was the signal for his friend's diving into a pocket for a knife and slashing right and left with it. The robbers were unharmed by the assault, but Wilson received two ugly wounds in the left arm. He fell to the sidewalk and when he arose there was no one in sight. After he was taken to the harbor hospital he told Detective Richards that he did not know the name of the friend to whose rescue he had gone, but that he didn't want him arrested anyway.

YOUNG PROFESSOR TAKES LAW CHAIR

Maurice E. Finn to Leave St. Mary's for Notre Dame University.

Professor Maurice E. Finn, head of the law department of St. Mary's college and one of the youngest professors on the coast, has accepted the chair of law in Notre Dame University, Indiana.

Although only 28 years of age, Professor Finn has had a brilliant career. He is a son of a prominent banker, W. E. Finn of Sutter Creek, Amador county. After receiving his early training on the coast he went to Harvard University, where he graduated in law in the 1905 class. For four years subsequently he was in the government service, acting as secretary to United States consuls. Finn's scholastic career has been as successful as when he served under the government. He takes an active interest in the welfare of the teaching profession, and his knowledge of law has made him of great service to the teachers in Oakland and throughout the State. It was he who drafted the laws governing the work of the Teachers' Association, which are at present before the Legislature.

Professor Finn is a doctor of laws, a prominent member of the Native Sons of the Golden West, and is also a member of the Elks club and of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He expects to leave St. Mary's college to take up his duties in Indiana in August.

STAMPED ENVELOPES AGAIN BEING PRODUCED

Postmaster Paul Schafer, as well as all postmasters in the United States, has been notified by Third Assistant Postmaster General A. M. Dockery of Washington, D. C., that the production of stamped envelopes has been resumed. The stamped envelope factory at Dayton, O., which was closed for a brief time on account of the flood, has resumed operations. Railroad transportation out of Dayton is not yet normal and some delay in filling requisitions may be expected at first, according to Dockery, but shipments will be caught up as soon as possible.

SEN. WORKS AIMS BLOW AT PAPERS

Scores U. S. Journalism and Seeks to Prevent Publication of Crime.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Works made a vigorous attack on present day journalism and the newspapers of the United States in a speech today in support of his bill to make it unlawful for District of Columbia newspapers to publish details of crimes, accidents and tragedies. The senator introduced a similar bill at the last session, but it was not acted upon.

"Whether people want this kind of news or not is one of the questions to be considered looking at journalism as nothing higher than a means of making money," said the Senator. "Newspapermen maintain that they furnish this kind of news because the people want and will have it, and therefore, it is the only way of maintaining their publications on a paying basis. But I am convinced that the masses of people who support the newspapers would prefer to have such news omitted."

Aside from publication of crimes, accidents and tragedies, the Senator attacked newspapers for the discomfort and embarrassment caused the relatives and friends of persons involved.

"I maintain that if a newspaper publishes matter that is deleterious and poisonous to the minds of its readers, thus violating the rules of good morals and decency, it should be made criminally liable for this offense, an offense far more important and heinous than the libel of the individual and upon precisely the same principles."

Miss Theo Spaulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Spaulding, of one of the most prominent families of the Alameda city has told of her engagement to Raymond O. Gott, a young lawyer following close upon the news of the engagement Miss Spaulding announced that she had chosen the date of the wedding for June 3. A coterie of close friends will assist the hostess in welcoming the many guests.

The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room, which was effectively decorated with pink and white blossoms, and the gowns of the bridal party accorded with the dainty colors. The bride was given in a handsome creation of white satin draped with rare old lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lilacs-of-the-valley tied with knots of white tulle. Miss Elizabeth and Miss Margaret Pack, sisters of the bride, attended her, and their flocks were of pink chameuse, prettily made. They carried armfuls of pink blossoms. John Tunnell of San Francisco was best man in support of Blachley. A reception and wedding supper followed the ceremony, at which Mr. and Mrs. Blachley left for a honeymoon in the south. ADVANTAGES OF PERSPIRATION

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1913, by Lillian Russell)

MILLIONS annually die directly from the cause of checked perspiration, as does the soldier upon the battlefield from the bullet or bayonet, all of whom could be saved by a little care and thought; and yet very few seem to be properly impressed with the great dangers which follow it. When the perspiration is checked all this great quantity of matter, with its impurities, is retained to poison the system and unless the perspiration is speedily restored disease and death follow. Most animals, as man and the horse, sweat by means of the skin, while others, as the ox and dog, sweat only by the tongue; and the terrible effects of checked perspiration may be seen in the last-named animal, which becomes mad or rabid as soon as the tongue ceases to sweat, for hydrophobia is only checked perspiration in the dog, by which the poisoned humors of the body are retained, producing these most frightful effects.

Most of us know that in a majority of diseases the patient begins to recover the moment he begins to sweat. The most common way in which perspiration is checked is by exposure to currents or drafts of air, by which the heat of the body escapes faster than it is produced, so that the temperature is reduced below its natural standard. Those, therefore, who prize life and health cannot be too vigilant when in a perspiration not to allow it to be suddenly checked, but prevent it by active exercise, by additional clothing or by getting near a good fire and allowing themselves to cool off gradually. Every one should have at least one sweat bath each week, especially in warm weather, to throw off the impurities of the skin.

Hot facial baths when correctly taken have a marked effect upon the complexion, simply because they open the pores and clear them of all dust and dirt. This dust and dirt seems invisible, but after a good hot bath of from five to fifteen minutes you will notice that the skin will appear and will be three shades lighter in color. A pure cold cream should always be carefully rubbed on the face before such a bath and after the is dried another thin application of cold cream should be used. Nothing benefits the complexion more than a positive rest, lying flat upon the back absolutely relaxed for an hour, or even half an hour after a sweat bath or facial massage. The reason of it is simply that lying flat permits the blood to circulate freely through the entire body. Equalizing the circulation prevents any facial flushing, red noses and dizziness. Remember, to be clean in mind and body you must start below the surface.

HOBBLE SKIRT IN CORNERSTONE OF HALL

LARKSPUR, April 17.—Contrary to the prediction of the modiste and fashion divs, the much-abused hobble skirt is to be preserved for future generations to look upon as the most extreme example of the attire of the twentieth century.

One of the now discarded freak costumes will take its place beside a Bible, copies of the San Francisco morning newspaper, a few dollars' worth of the local town trustees in the corner of the new town hall.

The ceremony of laying the cornerstone will be held Sunday, April 21, at 10 o'clock. The hobble skirt will be the largest and lowest crowned "Merry Widow" millinery creations that can be resurrected from the wardrobe of local women. Each will be identified by name and date, showing when it was worn.

The ceremony will be in charge of Mayor F. M. Gardner and will begin at 2:30 o'clock. St. Vincent's Orphanage band will assist in the musical program and in the evening a banquet will be served.

Gordon Reconciled

NEW YORK, April 17.—Kitty Gordon, the actress, and her husband, Captain Henry de la Torre Beresford, are reconciled today after a separation of four years. The papers in her divorce suit have been burned.

Miss Gordon attributes their marital difficulties to her love for the stage. "I presume I am partly to blame for our troubles," she said today. "My life is wrapped up in my work and Captain Beresford was not willing at first that I should leave him."

"As soon as my engagement in vaudeville is over I will return to England with him. But I shall come back again in the fall. I hope to persuade Captain Beresford to return with me."

NEW YORK, April 17.—After a patient wait of two long years, Florence Holbrook's suit for absolute divorce from her comical husband, Cecil Lean, was called today.

Proper Care of Hair and Complexion
(The Home Doctor)
Scalp-dandruff means everything in growing and preserving beautiful hair, because only from a clean scalp will a beautiful growth of hair come. A teaspoonful of canthox (which costs little) dissolved in cup hot water, immediate cleanliness results; dandruff and a skin-dandruff are removed instantly. Your hair is now clean, the scalp is healthy and takes on a most soft, fluffy, and lustre without any tendency to become streaky, brittle or harsh.

No woman will have cause to complain of thinning or falling hair when she uses pure face powder, she uses pure face powder, she uses pure face powder.

This wonderful skin-whiter and complexion-beautifier is easily made at home at small cost by dissolving 4 ounces of pure white soap in 1/2 pint of hot water, then adding 2 teaspoonsful of each of the following: 1/2 ounce of pure white soap, 1/2 ounce of pure white soap, 1/2 ounce of pure white soap.

It rubs off as easily as powder, and it keeps the skin smooth and fresh, and protects it from chapping.

Affair to Be Given at the Hotel Oakland in Honor of Visitors.

Aahmes Temple Headquarters Open for Reception of Templar Guests.

The visiting Knights Templar will see Aahmes Temple of the Mystic Shrine at its best Saturday night when, at Piedmont Rink, the Shriners will hold an elaborate ceremonial, during which a number of neophytes will be initiated and will afterward entertain at a big banquet in honor of the convalesce delegates and visiting Shriners from other cities, many of the Templars being also members of the Shrine.

The affair will be one of the most important in the history of the Oakland Temple. The official dinner, in full uniform of the shrine, assisted by the different officers and committees, will receive the guests at the banquet table after the rites of the order have been said at the ceremonial. The affair will be informal in nature, and short addresses will be made by the shrine officers and guests. Foretaste F. W. Bilger will preside as toastmaster.

Under the direction of the officers of the official dinner and the committees preparations have been carried on rapidly, and details for the big affair are practically complete.

Among the officers of the dinner are Geo. S. Meredith, chief rabban; Robert Greig, assistant rabban; Dr. J. Lorán Pease, high priest; B. A. Forrester, oriental guide; J. A. Hall, treasurer; Ed. H. SHRINERS HOSTS.

The new Shriners headquarters in the southeast wing of the Hotel Oakland have been a scene of gaiety since the arrival of the Templars. The Shriners have kept open house for the visitors from morning until evening. Members of the reception committee and official dinner have been constantly in attendance to greet the visitors from outside cities, and the new clubrooms have been crowded practically the entire time. Chinese boys in Oriental costume, are in attendance at the club rooms, and light refreshments are served the visitors. The new quarters are among the most elaborate Shriners clubrooms in the entire state, no expense having been spared in fitting them up. Special fixtures and furniture have been provided and several valuable paintings add to the attractiveness of the quarters. The clubrooms have been highly praised by the visitors.

BELGIAN VOTE STRIKE HAS SPREAD

Workers All Over Country Are Recruiting Movement for Equality.

BRUSSELS, April 17.—The Belgian workers' strike continues to extend slowly in every part of the country. Small numbers of men have returned to their work here and there, but these defections are unimportant as compared with the figures of the fresh recruits who have joined the movement. The men as a rule appear to be settling down to a long test of endurance and are determined to achieve victory in the cause for which they are fighting—that of equality in voting.

The socialist organization has opened dining halls providing free meals to needy workers. The strikers and their families generally are employing their time in working their gardens or making walking tours of neighboring places of interest, while the strike majors are organizing concerts, moving picture shows and magic lantern lectures to amuse and instruct the strikers and to keep them out of mischief.

DEMONSTRATION MARCH.

LIEGE, Belgium, April 17.—Strong columns of strikers without music, flags or insignia of any kind, today marched along the country roads uniting the towns and villages in this part of Belgium as a demonstration for equal suffrage.

ROWDY OUTBREAK.

SERAING, Belgium, April 17.—Gangs of rowdy youths passed through the workmen's residential district here early today, breaking windows in the houses of non-striking. Other parties occupied the roads leading to the city and stopped non-striking from outlying villages coming to work. Cavalry patrols have been placed on duty, but the gangs thus far have managed to elude them.

Tickets for Affair at Shell Mound Park Placed on Sale.

Enjoyable Outing Promised to Those Who Attend on April 26.

Tickets for the Maine monument benefit to be given at Shellmound Park Saturday afternoon and evening, April 26, under the auspices of the United Spanish War Veterans, were placed on sale at various prominent stores in Oakland and San Francisco today.

Aside from helping along the completion of a national monument which has as its watchword "Remember the Maine," those who attend are assured an enjoyable outing. There is to be dancing all the afternoon and evening, for which good music has been provided, and there will be plenty of exciting action for those who wish to see the soldiers and sailors do a variety of stunts that are not generally open to the public.

The soldiers of the Presidio and the naval lads from Yerba Buena training station who are assisting the United Spanish War Veterans in making the benefit a big success, have a large number of exercises which are to be performed for the benefit of those who attend.

Captain Charles E. Gove, Colonel Cornelius Gardner and Colonel Lea Febliger have commended the United Spanish War Veterans and the object for which the benefit is to be rendered.

MARIN CO-OPERATES.

The question of how best to aid the project was taken up yesterday by members of the John H. Harris camp of San Rafael, and Charles A. Redding, past commander of the camp, is one of those who have enlisted in the work of boosting the benefit on that side of the bay.

H. B. Taylor, past commander of Nelson A. Miles camp, is one of a committee of four appointed by Miles camp to confer and make necessary arrangements with the other camps about the bay. The other members of the committee are Charles J. Dittmar, B. G. Dingler and A. Z. Linsky.

One of the events that creates a large amount of interest among the various camps each year is a relay race. It is probable that each camp will bring forward several of its best runners.

The men of the barracks declare that they have many interesting features that have never been witnessed by the public. Out at the Presidio, where two camps of the United Spanish War Veterans are made up of soldiers who have re-enlisted, there is talk of having a wall-scaling exhibition, showing how soldiers surmount a wall which they encounter it in attacking a fortification.

This is but one of a number of suggestions, and the best and most interesting are to be selected and put on the program that will be announced in a few days.

Captain Charles E. Gove, commandant of the Yerba Buena naval training station, has signified his willingness to do what he can to make the affair a success. "I am heartily in sympathy with the benefit and its object," he said, "and I shall be glad to do anything I can to help it along."

APPEALS TO FIGHTING MEN.

Colonel Cornelius Gardner, commandant at the Presidio, said yesterday that the men of the post were free to take any part they might desire. The Maine monument, he said,

CHURCH HAS DEDICATION

Altar and Pulpit Installed Are Beautiful Works of Art.

Today's Conference Session of Augustana Synod Triple in Nature.

The new altar and pulpit of St. Paul's Swedish Lutheran church, Tenth and Grove street, was dedicated last night as the opening act of the California Conference of the Augustana Synod now in session in Oakland. Rev. Edward Nelander of Los Angeles gave the dedicatory address.

The altar and pulpit is a beautiful work of art done by Charles Lindén, an Oakland art worker. A Thorwaldsen's statue of Christ is set in the center of the altar. Music and singing was rendered by two choirs. A generous altar offering was given to Rev. N. P. Andersen, pastor of the church.

Rev. P. E. Berg of Templeton, Cal., the president of the conference delivered the conference which is triple in its nature. The session is occupied by business and the conference while his trip in its nature will be alternated by the meetings under the auspices of the State Luther League and the State Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, which will be addressed by Mrs. H. M. Harpur for several years past, being in this country on a furlough at the present time.

Among those present are: From Los Angeles, Rev. and Mrs. Edward Nelander, who is vice-president of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society; Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith; Miss Florence Carlson, William Johnson and Aaron Allen. From Riverside, Rev. Luther Dohisten, Charles Johnson, Miss Elsie Carlson and the Misses D. and N. Peterson. From Pasadena, Rev. B. O. Berg, Anna Gustafson and Oscar Ericson. From Kerman, August L. Johnson, Frank Johnson and Eric Ericson. From Turlock, Oscar Anderson and Andrew Anderson. From San Jose, Rev. A. M. La Vasa, Miss Esther Le Veau, Axel Johnson and Alfred Larson. Rev. P. G. Hanson of Eureka, Rev. A. M. Nordstrom of Fresno and Andrew Ericson of Kingsbury.

LODGER LOSES $75.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Michael Twomey, who lives at the Victor hotel, 1753 Howard street, reports that the room of Patrick Manning, a lodger, was ransacked last night and valuables to the amount of $75 taken.

Twomey says that Manning was something that would naturally appeal to every soldier and sailor and they would all be glad to contribute to the success of such a benefit.

Colonel Lea Febliger of the Sixth Infantry, a Spanish war veteran, is in sympathy with the work of the organization, and as a soldier he is also interested in the monument that is to be unveiled at New York City.

"This is a benefit for a good cause," he said, "and I believe that it can be made a success. I have a high regard for the United Spanish War Veterans as an organization, and I hope that they will succeed in making the occasion a memorable one."

At a meeting last night the William D. McKinnon camp unanimously endorsed taking an active part in the benefit. Dr. Lewis Welsbach as one of the influential members has consented to work from now until the benefit is over to help bring a large gathering.

Colonel Hayden Y. Grubbs camp made up of the men of the Sixth Infantry, will meet tonight in regular session, when the question of doing their share in the program will be decided upon.

AMENDMENTS TO ANTI-ALIEN MEASURE PRESENTED

Japanese Are Still Barred; Concessions Made to Foreign Capital

SACRAMENTO, April 17.—Amendments to the Birdsell anti-alien land bill, designed to exempt from the strict prohibitions of the act all California properties held by European capital while still barring the Japanese, were offered in the Senate today by the author of the measure.

The amendments were drawn up at a conference late last night between Senator Birdsell and Thompson and E. H. Winn and W. E. Reed, Duncan MacDuffie, T. C. Kierulff and J. M. Mannion Jr., who represent foreign syndicates having large interests in this state.

If adopted by the Senate the proposed changes will make the Birdsell bill more acceptable to Europeans than the Assembly bill and more restrictive upon the Japanese.

The principal amendment is the insertion of a clause permitting corporations, the majority stock of which is held by aliens eligible to citizenship, to own land. This provision was in the Assembly bill, for the Birdsell measure heretofore provided that the majority stock of such corporations should be held by "citizens of the United States or persons who had declared their intention to become citizens."

CONCESSIONS TO CAPITAL.

Further concessions to European capital are contained in the following new sections, which protect the loans of foreign banks and exempt land used in the mining, oil, shipping and lumber industries, where most foreign capital, except that of the Japanese, is invested. The new sections are as follows:

"The prohibitions of this act shall not extend to lands which are valuable chiefly for mines or minerals, or which are being operated as mines, nor to lands chiefly valuable for the production of oil, nor to timber lands, nor refineries, or factories for the treatment, refining reduction, processing, manufacturing, shipping, storage or otherwise handling or disposing of any of the products of such lands, nor to pipe lines for the conveyance of oil or other fluid substance, except water."

EXCEPTION MADE.

"This act shall not apply to the acquisition by aliens or corporations of lands which are now, or may hereafter become subject to a deed of trust, mortgage, or other lien to secure a debt or other obligation to any alien or corporation, where such lands or interest thereon are acquired at a sale under such deed of trust, mortgage or other lien, for default of the debtor, or upon a judicial sale upon the foreclosure of such deed of trust, mortgage or other lien."

JAPANESE IS LOBBYIST.

A circular quoting the views of Dr. David Starr Jordan of Stanford, who is opposed to an anti-alien land law has made its appearance at the capital in the hands of the first Japanese lobbyist that ever came to Sacramento. The lobbyist refuses to disclose his name.

PROTEST AGAINST BILL.

LONG BEACH, April 17.—The Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution today protesting against the passage of the pending alien ownership bill. The action of the chamber was based especially upon the fact that the sweeping provisions of the proposed measure would prevent investments in land by many Canadians, who visit this section each year, and have no intention of becoming citizens.

ADVERTISING MEN PLAN

'GET-TOGETHER' DINNER

Publicity Men and Ladies, From Both Sides of Bay, Will Gather Here

Preparations are rapidly nearing completion for the joint dinner and "ladies' night" of the Oakland-San Francisco and Berkeley Advertising Associations to be held April 24 at 7 p. m. at the Hotel Oakland. The committee in charge of general arrangements have appointed various committees to handle the different features of this dinner.

Many interesting features for this affair are being planned. At 3:30 p. m. the visiting advertising men will be met by the Oakland delegation with automobiles and will be shown over Oakland and the east side of San Francisco bay in a tow-hauler's ride.

At 7 p. m. guests will gather at the Hotel Oakland and enjoy the banquet, the details of which Chief Tessler has been working on for several days past. During the banquet several high class entertainment features will be presented, followed by numerous speeches.

WOLGAST IS KNOCKED DOWN IN CAMP BY PHIL KNIGHT

With but 48 hours intervening between the Wolgast-Murphy battle at Coffroth's Mission Arena, the ex-champion is down to within a pound of the required weight, and Tommy Murphy tips the scale at 134½. Wolgast did road work this morning, but laid off in the afternoon, both he and his manager, Tom Jones, professing to believe that the little German has had enough boxing.

The sensation of the day in camp yesterday came when Wolgast was knocked down by a left hook to the jaw from Phil Knight, with whom he was boxing.

Knights and Ad were putting up an exhibition for a party of Coffroth's friends, and in the second round Wolgast danced into a lightning hook that set him off his pins and onto the floor. He was up in a flash and smiling, but the blow evidently hurt, and caused a buzz of excitement this morning when the news became known.

Jim Buckle, manager for Tommy Murphy, Tom Jones and Jim Coffroth met this morning to talk over the situation and to formally select Jim Griffin as referee.

BURNS MARKS HIS RETURN WITH WIN OVER AZEVEDA

By THE TIMEKEEPER.

Frankie Burns signaled his return to the ring after his defeat by Harlem Tommy Murphy on New Year's Day by winning the decision over Joe Azeveda last night before the Oakland Wheelmen's Club, and was given a rousing reception by the admirers of this Oakland lightweight. Burns showed flashes of his old-time self in his fight with Azeveda and earned the decision. Azeveda is a tough youngster with plenty of skill and his few days' work in the camp of former champion, Ad Wolgast, has taught him much about the game. He adopted Wolgast's cover-up tactics during the latter rounds and allowed Burns to almost tire himself on Joe's head, uncovering in time to land a few punches on the head with some effect.

Burns showed far better in this fight than he did in his fight with Murphy. This is his first time in the ring since that date and he had previously announced that he intended to retire. He has appeared before the Wheelmen's club in several six-round matches but this was his first time out here as a headliner and he won many friends and supporters by his ability to make an up-hill fight.

Azeveda is a youngster at the game and also in years, but he showed last night that he has a future before him. He has appeared before the Wheelmen's club in several six-round matches but this was his first time out here as a headliner and he won many friends and supporters by his ability to make an up-hill fight.

In the fourth round the bell undoubtedly saved Azeveda from a knockout. Burns clipped him on the jaw with a vicious right cross that sent him staggering to the ropes. He recovered himself but was at sea apparently, not knowing where Burns was. The bell rang and left him standing in the center of the ring bewildered.

Azeveda recovered quickly and came back for the fifth round apparently unhurt, but he changed his style of fighting and adopted that cover up crouch used by Wolgast and fought the balance of the fight this way. It proved to be a puzzle that Burns could not solve, although he fought Wolgast under the same style. In the third round, however, Burns with a straight left, but could not cross over his right to a vulnerable spot. When Azeveda came at him in the crouch Burns rocked his head back and forth with rights and lefts with little effect. Joe came out of his shell several times during the rounds and landed the lefts and rights on Burns' head.

Burns' straight left cut Azeveda's mouth and nose open and he bled profusely while Azeveda opened the old war on Burns ear and this contributed his share of the claret to the melee. Once during the fight Police Captain Beck instructed referee Toby Irwin to caution Azeveda about "roughing" Burns on the head in an effort to make his ear sore. Irwin also cautioned the man toward the latter rounds about wrestling.

Azeveda won a host of admirers and his own following went into ecstasies in the first two rounds when he landed several good hard lefts on Burns' head and jaw while Frankie seemed either unable to retaliate or was saving himself for the third round. Burns seemed able to put a left into Azeveda's face almost at will, but the quickness of the little Portuguese scrapper saved him from Burns' right cross.

FIFTEEN SEALS IN 12 INNINGS BEAT CHAMPS

[By BILLY FITZ.]

THE overthrow of the Mitze administration yesterday after twelve rounds of turbulent baseball only goes to show that Seals are peculiar creatures at best. That twelve-to-two thrashing which the Oaks handed out on Tuesday was a wonderful tonic for Howard's men. There was as much difference in their play on Tuesday and Wednesday as there is between chalk and cheese. Tuesday they staged a satire, yesterday they unlearned baseball with a capital B, plucking the candy away as fast as the Oaks made it, and finally walking away with the entire bag as chipper as a Broadway cop.

The tenth inning of the struggle is likely to go down in history as an example of one of the most remarkable situations on record. Oakland had overcome a three-run lead, thanks to Coy's home run in the sixth, scoring Zacher ahead of him, and Seals' safe slip in the ninth, scoring Cook from third.

Thus neck and neck they swung into the tenth round, with both teams running under one blanket, with their eyes on the wire and the voices of a couple of thousand fans ringing in their ears. The game field that Zacher entered. Thus you perceive that the Oaks drew away at the nadir, but wait—

For the game came up under the whip right away. Our old friend "Izzy" Hoffman was sent in to bat for McCardie and was greatly peeved because umpire Bush called a perfect strike on him. Ed Zacher, enter one James Johnston, who hit into his hit about in Ables' class, which is something over .062. Amidst great enthusiasm, Mr. Johnston carried the ball safely to left field and chased violently two bags further when Del Howard slipped a vicious screwdriver to right center. Del Howard followed up this feat by pliffing second, due largely to the fact that "Bunny" Pearce was apparently bowler to lead. The Oaks' second baseman saw he had no chance to keep Johnston from registering, so he tossed to Cook foraging Zimmerman, who was right on top of the plate, and made a safe and conservative throw to lead.

Now observe the situation: One in the ice-chest, Johnston on third and Howard at second, up comes Helne Zimmerman, leading slugger for the amphibian enemy. Mitze signalled from the bench to take chances and Malarkey followed orders to the letter, tossing four wide ones to Zimmerman, thereby filling the bases. Zimmerman was the next man, but he was derelict in favor of McCardie, for what purpose Howard alone knows. McCardie missed fire twice and then smote a slow bouncer to lead. The Oaks' second baseman saw he had no chance to keep Johnston from registering, so he tossed to Cook foraging Zimmerman, who was right on top of the plate, and made a safe and conservative throw to lead.

Howard hit the dust, and both runner and catcher missed it at the rim of the net. Apparently Howard had got on der Pearce's frantic attempt to tag, and Recreation Park rose up on his hind legs to do him honor. The crowd, believing the game was over, swarmed on to the field while most of the Seals struck out for the clubhouse, followed by a few straggling Oaks.

The newspaper men in the press box, including the official scorer, just about this time were a badly puzzled set of individuals, for umpire Bush, who was right on top of the plate, had apparently neglected to call Howard either out or safe. The blue-coated official had something seriously on his mind, for he remained at the plate, apparently waiting for something. Finally, with both teams at the clubhouse, and most of the crowd streaming toward the exits, the writer drew the only natural conclusion, and flashed into THE TRIBUNE office that Howard had scored and the game was over.

Bunny Pearce, Captain Hettling and Malarkey, however, hung around the plate, arguing that Howard had not touched the rubber, and finally Malarkey grabbed the ball from Pearce, started after Howard in the outfield and tagged him.

Whereupon, Mr. Bush ruled that Howard was out, explaining that the boss of the Seals had not touched the plate, and one in the seventh Oakland made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley. Bolt was batted out of the box in the sixth, while Malarkey made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley. Bolt was batted out of the box in the sixth, while Malarkey made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley. Bolt was batted out of the box in the sixth, while Malarkey made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley.

Had Not Completed Suppose Malarkey Play?

One of the fans asked Mitze yesterday what would have happened had Howard remained in the clubhouse in the tenth inning instead of coming back to the field and permitting himself to be tagged. Inasmuch as Pearce had not touched the runner at the plate, and the runner had not touched the plate, how was the play to end?

Mitze pointed out that the catcher could take three steps after the retreating runner had left the paths and this would constitute a put-out. Apparently a nobody thought of that yesterday, for the final put-out was made by Malarkey in center field, fully five minutes after the play.

But suppose the Oaks had not tumbled to why the "rump" was still watching the plate and had gone to the clubhouse, with the Seals believing Howard had scored. What would the answer be then?

HIGH SCHOOL NINES PLAY 9-INNING 6-6 TIE

Oakland and Berkeley high schools battled to a tie score of six runs apiece yesterday afternoon at Grove Street park in the second game of the annual baseball series. The contest was loosely played throughout, each team making four errors. Berkeley took the lead in the first with three runs and scored three more in the eighth when Earle knocked a home run with two men on the bags. Oakland secured one in the second, two in the fourth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh. Oakland made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley. Bolt was batted out of the box in the sixth, while Malarkey made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley. Bolt was batted out of the box in the sixth, while Malarkey made eight hits off the deliveries of Bolt and Palmeron of Berkeley.

The score of yesterday's game: R. H. E. Oakland High 6 5 4 Berkeley High 6 5 4 Retired—Foster and Recker; Holt, Palmeron and Stephens.

After holding the enemy to three hits and no runs until the ninth round, "Judge" Munnell lost his dignity and his nerve. Los Angeles yesterday, at the Tigers filled up the bags on him. Immediately he was yanked to make room for Williams, who fanned McDonnell for the second out. Tommenan stirred, scoring two, but Munnell tied up to Smith. Thus the Wolves have grabbed two inches and the week is still young.

FEAR EFFECT OF REDLIGHT BILL

Property Owners Seek to Bring About Referendum on Measure.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The Property Owners' Protective Association of California has formed a permanent organization to bring about a referendum vote on Assembly Bill No. 353, known as the "red light bill." M. L. Raphael is president of the association and speaking of the matter said:

"We are acting exclusively through the property owners of California. It is not our purpose to favor segregation of vice but rather to confine it where it already exists. The property owners of this state never realized the position they were in until this red light bill was passed. Now they appreciate that unless something is done, dangerous results are likely to follow. The purpose of our organization is to work for the best interest of the property owners of this state. We do feel that the present law will not accomplish the purpose desired, but instead will scatter the dens of the underworld to all sections of the city, subjecting moral residents to unnecessary danger."

Dr. Joseph F. Pohlem, former police commissioner, is chairman of the executive committee, and Norman C. Badin, the realty man, is the secretary.

ENJOY TRIP WHILE COAL BUNKERS ARE BURNING

NEW YORK, April 15.—While a stubborn fire was burning in the coal bunkers of the steamer Cincinnati on its voyage from Genoa, which ended here last night, the passengers slept, ate, walked about and enjoyed the usual shipboard recreations in entire ignorance that anything out of the ordinary was going on. It took the crew three days, from April 12, when the outbreak was discovered, until yesterday to extinguish the fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Dr. William MacKenzie, an aged physician, convicted of performing an unlawful operation, was sentenced by Superior Judge Dunne today to three years in San Quentin. Owing to the fact that Dr. MacKenzie is 64 years old, the court was prevailed upon to show him leniency in passing judgment. The complaining witness was Mrs. E. Dunning of Petaluma.

FRATERNAL AND BUSINESS WORLD FEEL SAD LOSS

E. G. JEFFRESS.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., April 17.—Ernest G. Jeffress, a well-known Southern Pacific official of Oakland died suddenly here today. He was 48 years of age. Jeffress had been prominently identified with the defense in the federal government's suit to recover vast petroleum royalties from the Southern Pacific company, and he was in Bakersfield on a mission in connection with the litigation.

E. G. Jeffress, who lived at 849 Thirty-eighth street, left for Bakersfield last Sunday. On Monday he was followed by his wife, who was with him at the time of his death. For years past the deceased had been identified with the construction department of the Southern Pacific, working as a surveyor and as a road engineer, being with the staff of engineers that closed up the Coast route from Santa Barbara to Surt. He was a prominent Mason and a member of the lodge of Elks, and well known both in fraternal and business circles. In railroad circles he was regarded as having more than ordinary ability and was in line for rapid promotion.

Jeffress was a member of Charter Oak Lodge of Masons of Berkeley and the Elks Lodge of Oakland. He was first employed by the Southern Pacific company 18 years ago and was always connected with that corporation in the engineering department. Through his own efforts he worked himself up until he became chief engineer of the Associated Pipe Line Engineers' Association. He was also a member of the Associated Pipe Line Engineers' Association.

Leaving the Associated Pipe Line Company, Jeffress went to the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, at Portland. Later he became connected with the Associated Oil Company, and about a month ago the Southern Pacific bid for him again to look out for their interests in connection with the United States Government.

From Melrose station to Fairfax is about six blocks. The S. P. makes a commutator rate to Melrose, for $2 and to Fairfax of $3.50. Then six blocks further to Seminary avenue a charge of $4.50 is made and if the same rate is charged to Melrose station, a rate of $2.50 a month would be charged as the distance is about 3 1/2 miles east of Seminary avenue.

We want no transfer to Oakland Traction company or anything else you speak of in your "blue sky scheme," as you term our contention. We wish sufficient funds to employ an attorney to properly place before the Railroad Commissioners our plea for justice. The S. P. charges $3 to Thousand Oaks and a rate of $2.50 to Fairfax avenue, which is in Oakland and you say in your editorial, "At present the S. P. charges $2.50 for a single fare." You buy a ticket in San Francisco at the Ferry to Oakland for 10 cents and it says Oakland, Alameda or Berkeley, but when you pass Melrose station you are charged in full and you are still in Oakland and your ticket says to Oakland (and not going past Melrose).

We feel that the S. P. is discriminating against East Oakland and we want the Railroad Commission to pass upon the matter. We have twenty or more houses that the greater part of the people buying same work in San Francisco and these people are paying for their homes a rate of $2.50 a month more than people that live in Thousand Oaks, Calmar or any other part of town that is practically the same distance from the Oakland Mole. These people should not be made to pay more just because they are working people and let our millionaires and business men pay less. Why don't the S. P. charge the extra fare to certain stations in or beyond Berkeley. Their Berkeley trains take the Seventh street local, which is the Melrose train. In my opinion your editorial is very much uncalled for and certainly it is not properly represented before the Railroad Commission needs an attorney and if you can suggest the name of one that will offer his services gratis an overcharged public east of Melrose will certainly be grateful.

We have sufficient funds at present to prosecute our case and wish to say that your knocking the East Oakland Protective League won't phase our cause one iota.

(Signed) J. L. WOOD,
President Seminary Park Improvement Club.

SULLIVAN SELECTED FOR APPRAISER APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Jerry B. Sullivan, a Democratic leader in Iowa, has been selected for appointment to the board of United States general appraisers at New York. Senators Cummings and Kenyon were consulted today by President Wilson about the prospective appointment.

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.
Coughs and colds, when neglected, always lead to serious trouble of the lungs. The worst thing you can do when you have a cold that troubles you is to get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. You will get relief from the first dose, and finally the cough will disappear. O. H. Brown of Muscadine, Ala., writes: "My wife was down in bed with an obstinate cough and I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, she would not be living today. Known for forty-three years as the best remedy for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by Dr. Good Book."

TO BE CUSTOMS APPRAISER.
WASHINGTON, April 17.—William Roper of Philadelphia, former Princeton football coach and a Democrat, virtually has been selected for appraisal of customs at Philadelphia.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Fingerprints of the murderer of George Dietz, woman tailor, who was beaten to death Monday, are expected to throw a web around the guilty that cannot be broken. This information was given today by a police officer in the case of Governor Hoffman, who is likely that the coroner's jury at the conclusion of the introduction of what evidence the police possesses will recommend that a man and a woman to be held to answer for the killing.

Discovery was made today that Mrs. Dietz is the second wife of the slain man.

Dietz obtained a divorce in January, 1887, from Julia Dietz, to whom he was married in September, 1878, at Hamburg, Germany.

'MONEY CHANGERS' IN TEMPLE OF LAW

Judge Coffey Objects to Rattle of Coin in His Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—There was a clink of gold in Superior Judge Coffey's court today. Moreover, that staid jurist who belongs to the old school, objected strenuously to the mixing of the vulgar coin with the formal legal proceedings in progress.

"They drove the money changers out of the temple in the days of old," he said. "Is it necessary for us to do it here?"

The case was that of the estate of David J. Walker, for 30 years a prominent resident of the Mission, whose property at Twenty-ninth and Church streets had been sold to J. F. Sward and his wife, of 2875 Twenty-seventh street. The couple were on hand to have the sale confirmed and they carried a sack containing $200 in $20 gold pieces. In a formal manner Judge Coffey asked if the money was ready. They took this to mean that they could count it out and sat themselves at a table. A witness was testifying while the coin was being piled in little stacks. Suddenly Mrs. Sward knocked over a stack of coins and the money clanged to the floor.

"Where is that sound of money coming from, Mr. Scheterson?" demanded the court addressing the bailiff.

"Right in front of you, your honor," was the reply.

The jurist merely frowned and all might have been well had not Sward's knocked over a second pile. Then the judge made his comment concerning changes.

The coin was scooped in the bag and the Swards made their exit. They came back in a moment, however, and the sale was completed.

THREE TRAGEDIES

Trio of Men Dead in Salt Lake
Following Serious
Quarrels.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 17.—Three men are dead here as a result of many quarrels and fights in which women played leading parts.

Hank Rutherford, a miner, was shot and killed by Thomas Clements, following a fight over a woman. Clements has made a full confession.

James Norris, a soldier of the Twentieth United States Infantry was found in a downtown hotel shot through the head.

It is said by the police that he was killed by a woman on whom he is alleged to have forced his attentions. A woman giving the name of Mrs. Nellie Potts is being held by the police.

Hassen Shampah died at the county hospital from wounds received in a fight with an unknown man over a girl whom both men sought to marry.

SENDS MUSIC TO PRISON.
Henry Vogt, secretary of the Oakland park commission, yesterday sent several hundred pieces of sheet music, which had been discarded by the Oakland park band, to the San Quentin prison band, in response to a request for sheet music from John Mullins, leader of the prison band. With the music were sent assurances to Leader Mullins of further donations of this kind.

POLICE LOOK FOR HIS MISSING WIFE

L. E. Dagle Reports Disappearance and Fears Serious Mishap.

L. E. Dagle of 866 Thirty-fifth street has asked the police to aid him in locating his wife. She left her home on April 12 intending to go shopping and did not return. All efforts to locate her have failed, and he fears that she may have been taken to some hospital in a serious condition, unable to give the proper address and name. She is 24 years of age, 5 feet 2 inches in height, and weighs about 150 pounds. Her hair and eyes are brown.

Other missing persons reported to the police are John Turner, 16, who left his home in Stockton on March 30.

Fred Die, missing from the Detention Home in Stockton since April 4.
